The Lost Art of Connecting: The Gather, Ask, Do Method for Building Meaningful Business Relationships Susan McPherson,2021-03-23 Named a Best Business Book of 2021 by Soundview Magazine Reclaim the power of genuine human connection Networking is often considered a necessary evil for all working professionals With social media platforms like Linkedin Twitter Instagram and Facebook at our disposal reaching potential investors or employers is much easier Yet these connections often feel transactional agenda driven and dehumanizing leaving professionals feeling burnt out and stressed out Instead we should connect on a human level and build authentic relationships beyond securing a new job or a new investor for your next big idea To build real and meaningful networking contacts we need to go back to basics remembering that technology is a tool and more than just a means to an end We need to tap into our humanity and learn to be more intentional and authentic As a serial connector and communications expert Susan McPherson has a lifetime of experience building genuine connections in and out of work Her methodology is broken down into three simple steps Gather Instead of waiting for the perfect networking opportunity to come to you think outside the box and create your own opportunity Host your own dinner party join a local meet up group or volunteer at your neighborhood food pantry Ask Instead of leading with our own rehearsed elevator pitches asking for help ask to help opening the door to share resources experience contacts and perspectives that add diversity to your own vision Do Turn new connections into meaningful relationships by taking these newly formed relationships deeper Follow through on the promises you made and keep in touch Woven together with helpful tips and useful advice on making the most out of every step this book draws on McPherson s own experience as a renowned serial connector as well as the real life success stories of friends and clients Filled with humor humility and wisdom The Lost Art of Connecting is the handbook we all need to foster personal and professional relationships that blur the lines between work and play and enrich our lives in every way

Left to Their Own Devices Julie M. Albright,2019 Digital natives are hacking the American Dream Young people brought up with the Internet smartphones and social media are quickly rendering old habits and norms a distant memory creating the greatest generation gap in history In this eye opening book digital sociologist Julie M Albright looks at our device obsessed society and the many ways in which the post World War II American Dream is waning for the Millennial generation Albright notes that in the former age of traditional media dominated by three major TV networks and the national print media values were more harmonized and time synchronized Today with a deluge of information available 24 7 we are experiencing a sort of digital tribalism with people coalescing inside of increasingly fragmented informational echo chambers Digital media allows bad actors to enlarge the rifts between these siloed tribes in divide and conquer fashion frothing up fears by propagating fake news and fake people online What are other effects of hyper connectivity coupled with disconnection from stabilizing social structures Albright sees both positives and negatives On the one hand mobile connectivity has given digital nomads the unprecedented opportunity to work or live anywhere On the other hand new threats are emerging including cyberbullying and the ability to radicalize marginalized youth decreased physical exercise increased isolation anxiety and loneliness ephemeral relationships fragmented attention spans lack of participation in community activities and the political process and detachment from the calm of nature or the refuge of religion In this time of rapid global technologically driven change this book offers fresh insights into the effects of always on devices on the family community business and society at large
