

STATUS QUO

DEFINITION

The status quo refers to the existing state of affairs or current conditions in a particular situation or environment. It represents the established norms, structures, or standards that are generally accepted and maintained over time. Resisting change and adhering to the status quo can lead to stagnation, but can also provide consistency and predictability.

EXAMPLES

- Gender Norms: Societies often adhere to traditional roles for men and women, discouraging behaviors that don't align with these established norms.
- Fossil Fuels: Despite the global push for renewable energy sources, many nations continue to heavily rely on fossil fuels due to established infrastructures.
