Teaching Stories:

My First Year in the Classroom Stephen D. Rogers, 2009-08-18 When the student is ready the teacher will appear Lao Tzu But is the teacher ready That s the question that challenges every teacher on that fateful first day in the classroom Making it through that day and the 179 school days that follow is how every career in education and lifelong learning truly begins In My First Year in the Classroom you ll laugh cry and undeniably empathize when you read about these fifty teachers trials tribulations and triumphs they ve experienced during their first year on the job Organized along the lines of the school calendar these touching tales will illustrate for you the learning curve ex experienced by new teachers as they Face day on meet the students surprise the students bond with faculty and staff be surprised by the students watch the students bloom say farewell From the hilariously obsessive compulsive preparation of a rookie English professor to the poignant lesson a bold third grader imparts upon his novice teacher about love and acceptance this moving collection is sure to motivate you whether you ve been teaching for years or days

Teaching, 1917 Teacher Identity Discourses Janet Alsup, 2006-08-15 In this book Janet Alsup reports and theorizes a multi layered study of teacher identity development The study which followed six pre service English education students was designed to investigate her hypothesis that forming or failing to form a professional identity is central in the process of becoming an effective teacher This work addresses the intersection of various types of discourse within the process of professional identity development emphasizes that the intersection of the personal and professional in teacher identity formation is more complex than is acknowledged in typical methods classes and accents the need for teacher educators to take steps to facilitate such integration Specific suggestions for methods courses are presented that teacher educators can use as is or adapt to their own contexts Teacher Identity Discourses Negotiating Personal and Professional Spaces speaks eloquently to faculty researchers and graduate students across the field of teacher education

Teaching Literature, 1930 Powerful Classroom Stories from Accomplished Teachers Adrienne Mack-Kirschner, 2003-10-30 We must improve schools from within utilizing our expertise as teaching professionals and placing ourselves at the center of the education reform movement As Adrienne Mack Kirschner informs us all in this important book These stories represent what is happening in tens of thousands of classrooms They hold within them the power of what could be if all teachers and schools provided opportunities for all children to experience powerful teaching and learning From the Foreword by Cathy R Owens NBCT Director of Teacher Leadership Initiatives The National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Inspiring stories from everyday classrooms to move your head heart and soul In an increasingly rigid educational world dominated by standards lock step scope and sequence and strict scripted lessons we can sometimes lose sight of why we chose to become teachers in the first place This important book puts the heart and soul back in education reminding us that we are not only teachers but also parents mentors friends and leaders Powerful Classroom Stories from Accomplished Teachers contains 70 wonderful inspiring stories told by accomplished classroom teachers all of whom have achieved or are candidates for National Board Certification These stories reach behind and around the statistics to highlight the art craft joys and challenges of teaching in today s classrooms breathing fresh life into the countless students we face every day Creative caring teachers invite you into their classrooms as they relate compelling and moving narratives allowing us to witness first hand essential teaching and learning moments in the lives of individual children The stories offer examples of instructional activities that are real student centered meaningful and most of all lasting Stories are grouped in harmony with the Five Core Propositions of accomplished teaching as defined by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Teachers are committed to students and their learning Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience Teachers are members of learning communities All of us have been touched in some way by the teachers we ve encountered in our lives This incredibly moving tribute to the artistry and love of teaching opens classroom doors and lets us look inside to find out what really makes a difference in the lives of our nation s students

Art's Teachings, Teaching's Art Tyson Lewis, Megan Laverty, 2015-08-28 This volume examines the interface between the teachings of art and the art of teaching and asserts the centrality of aesthetics for rethinking education Many of the essays in this collection claim a direct connection between critical thinking democratic dissensus and anti racist pedagogy with aesthetic experiences They argue that aesthetics should be reconceptualized less as mere art appreciation or the cultivation of aesthetic judgment of taste and more with the affective disruptions phenomenological experiences and the democratic politics of learning thinking and teaching The first set of essays in the volume examines the unique pedagogies of the various arts including literature poetry film and music The second set addresses questions concerning the art of pedagogy and the relationship between aesthetic experience and teaching and learning Demonstrating the flexibility and diversity of aesthetic expressions and experiences in education the book deals with issues such as the connections between racism and affect curatorship and teaching aesthetic experience and the common and studying and poetics The book explores these topics through a variety of theoretical and philosophical lenses including contemporary post structuralism psychoanalysis phenomenology critical theory and pragmatism

Teacher Thinking in Cultural Contexts Francisco A. Rios, 1996-03-14 Francisco Rios book sheds light on current scholarship around teacher thinking in cultural contexts and identifies promising practices that take into account context specific influences He provides a theoretical and conceptual framework for understanding why teacher cognition as a context specific phenomenon is important how it is studied what can be learned and how these learnings inform the preparation of culturally responsive educators The contributors look at how teachers think about students of color and or a multicultural curriculum and explore opportunities for reconstructing teacher knowledge of the cultural context Rather than focusing on ways in which the students are deficient or on the behavioral elements of effective teaching this book starts with the how and what of teacher thinking as a central element in the teaching learning relationship It places the teacher at the center of instructional activity While teacher thought influences what happens in instructional settings teacher thought is also influenced by the people and activity critical to those settings Enriched Teaching of Physical Education in the High School Maxie Nave Woodring, Norma Schwendener, 1929

Teaching Through the Ill Body Marla Morris, 2008-01-01 This book raises questions around pedagogy and illness Morris explores two large issues that run through the text What does the ill body teach What does the teacher do through the ill body The body has something to teach while teaching through the ill body This book is theoretically framed by connections between spirituality and aesthetics As the great spiritual traditions teach our responsibility as teachers is to help others especially those who are marginalized What is lacking in our educational discourse is a discussion of the responsibility we all have to help those who get sick and not marginalize them More specifically pedagogical and curricular questions are fleshed out through working in the area of curriculum studies depth psychology and the medical humanities These three disciplines have something in common autobiography But in the field of curriculum studies autobiographies pathographies of sickness are few and far between This book is meant to fill that gap in the educational literature This pathography is a study that explores the mysteries of suffering storytelling memory and poesis Compassion woundedness vulnerability testimony and authenticity are all issues Morris raises here Teachers scholars depth psychologists and medical educators might be particularly interested in this intensely felt narrative about what it is like for teachers to teach while suffering from chronic illness Teaching With "50 Great Short Stories Mary M. Nyman, 1994-01-01

Reproducible pages of excerpts exercises and writing projects Emphasizes writing and talking about literature through reading role playing cooperative learning and other activities Uses specific books stories poems and plays to stimulate students own writing

Beginning Teaching Sandy Schuck, Peter Aubusson, John Buchanan, Tom Russell, 2012-03-01 The experiences of the first years of new teachers professional lives are critical to their decisions about embracing or leaving the teaching profession Writ large these experiences have the potential to either underpin or undermine the growth and development of the teaching profession This book offers a research based account of beginning teachers experiences told from their own perspectives and often in their own words Beginning Teaching Stories from the Classroom provides valuable source material to inform teacher education practices The authors draw on more than 20 years of research on the professional learning retention and attrition of beginning teachers to provide evocative illustrations of the challenges and successes that occur in the early years of teaching The compelling and coherent narratives will appeal not only to student and graduate teachers but also to program designers coaches and senior managers in schools Above all the book speaks to teacher educators in the hope that the experiences discussed here will suggest ways of supporting student teachers to grow and flourish once they launch their careers in the profession These evocative stories express beginning teachers anguish and elation and also provide testimony to their resilience and perseverance in an altruistic profession The analysis and interpretation of their stories will challenge and uplift inspire and shame give cause for celebration and melancholy generate empathy and provoke introspection Above all else these stories call for change

Using Young Adult Literature to Work through Wobble Moments in Teacher Education Dawan Coombs, Jon Ostenson, 2022-07-25 This volume offers a novel approach to exploring how literary response groups can be used as part of teacher education programs to help preservice teachers navigate wobble moments Focusing uniquely on the potential of young adult literature YAL the text draws on the first hand experiences of teacher candidates and uses a range of well known books to demonstrate how narrative based inquiry and analysis of fictional depictions of teaching and learning can support reflection on a range of common challenges The volume presents how YAL literary response groups are shown to enhance participants ability to reflect on practice build resilience and develop deeper understanding of pedagogical principles by offering a shared dialogical space These insights ultimately contribute to teacher education program improvement by enhancing teacher candidates understanding of pedagogy This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of teaching teacher mentoring and teacher education more specifically Those interested in literature studies and young adult literature YAL more broadly will also benefit from this volume
