Wallerstein, 1978      Cradling the Chrysalis E. Mary Sullivan, Harriett Goldenberg, 2003-01-01 This book addresses the underlying philosophy and rationale for the training of psychotherapists How can training prepare prospective psychotherapists and counsellors for a task whose practitioners cannot even agree as to whether it is a science or an art an impersonal clinical interaction or a profoundly humane even spiritual encounter The authors argue for an understanding of psychotherapy training as a process which closely parallels that of therapy itself      CRADLING THE CHRYSALIS MACCALLUM SULLIVAN, 2019-06-21      To be a Therapist Jerry M. Lewis, 1978      Bibliography on Medical Education National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1966      Swimming Upstream Jerry M. Lewis, 2013-10-28 First published in 1991 The experiential base from which this book is written the author s seminar for psychiatric residents which emphasizes that self disclosure with colleagues is an important aspect of becoming a therapist The ability to look at and listen to one s own work along with one s peers is important in the maturation process In order to construct a context in which it is possible to learn from each other I share many of my own psychotherapeutic experiences More than this however Lewis shares personal experiences when they seem appropriate to the teaching learning process      Reaching and Teaching Through Educational Psychotherapy Gillian Salmon, Jenny Dover, 2007-09-27 This introduction to educational psychotherapy outlines the insights that will be of interest to teachers by discussing troubled children in the classroom who resist efforts to teach them Its evidence based approach allows teaching with confidence and a clear understanding of the role of educational psychotherapy in the classroom The book comprises four case studies of educational therapy work with children chosen for their narrative interest and the variety of the children s difficulties and backgrounds As the stories of three boys and one girl unfold the links between their learning difficulties and their social emotional development become clear Later chapters develop understanding of this way of working with detailed accounts of how to assess suitability for educational therapy psychoanalytic concepts underpinning the approach and techniques and materials used in individual and classroom work

The Psyche in the Modern World Tom Warnecke, 2018-05-11 The Psyche in the Modern World sets out to open consulting room doors and bring the concept of the Psyche and its main advocate the psychotherapy discipline into public space and into the realm of interdisciplinary discourse A culture of carefully guarded clinical confidentiality inadvertently turned the consulting room into a proverbial ivory tower which has done much to obscure the psychotherapeutic body of knowledge and contributed to the myths and misinformation that surround and veil psychotherapy in the public space This book redresses the balance and confronts some challenging and sometimes uncomfortable questions about the dichotomies that both characterize our relationships with the Psyche and contextualize the provision of psychotherapy services today The contributors present contemporary discussion on a broad range of current subjects encompassing socio political as well as philosophical theoretical and clinical dimensions in an accessible manner Handbook of Counseling Psychology Steven D. Brown, Robert W. Lent, 1992-05-08 This practical reference work has been revised and updated to review major contemporary areas of counselling and educational psychology practice It includes discussion of personal counselling developmental psychology and vocational and educational counselling International Insights: Equality in Education Vana Chiou, Oliver Holz, Nesrin Oruç Ertürk, Fiona Shelton, 2019 Educational institutions should offer a safe and secure environment for young people Part of that should be educational equity which is a measure of achievement fairness and opportunity in education This publication analyses and discusses educational equality from different angles All contributions reflect on the current situation of 11 European countries All of them are part of the Bologna process and are dealing with the challenges of the development of a European Higher Education Area This ongoing process is reflected in the present publication with a specific focus on equality in education The authors cover aspects like inclusion and inequality internationalizing education and accessing education but they also deal with learning foreign languages education for the future assessment feedback and student success lifelong learning teacher training as well as different aspects of the LGB T community and gender and education Catalog of the Research Library of the Reiss-Davis Child Study Center, Los Angeles, California: L-Z Reiss-Davis Child Study Center.
