Design for Change: Designing Evidence-Based Teacher Preparation Programs Alan Bain, 2024-05-28 This book focuses on enhancing teacher education quality by making evidence informed decisions about policy assessing quality establishing effective strategies and innovating teacher preparation programs It advocates for the importance of rigorous program design and evaluation as the basis for shaping policy directions and claiming program effectiveness The book introduces Design for Change DfC a 20 year long collaborative effort by a group of teacher educators dedicated to improving their practices DfC is divided into two parts Design for Change Teams and Process DfC TaP and Design for Change Programs and Courses DfC PaC DfC TaP explores how to form and sustain a design team of academics emphasizing the collaborative process s value in program development DfC PaC delves into applying practical theory to curriculum design mapping programs to standards creating meaningful learning and assessment tasks and leveraging technology The latter includes a chapter on software for teacher preparation program design The book s ultimate goal is to offer a versatile framework for designing teacher education programs The book employs evidence from longitudinal research to present generalizable concepts and structures for program developers and designers By doing so the book aims to contribute to the field by providing a research based guide for building teacher education programs that enhance the overall educational experience for both faculty and students

Comprehensive Mentoring Programs for New Teachers Susan Villani, 2009-06-17 The author has done an excellent job of highlighting the key aspects of a comprehensive induction program and offers rich examples across urban rural and suburban setting Anyone interested in developing induction programs that both support and accelerate beginning teacher development should read this book Ellen Moir Executive Director New Teacher Center University of California Santa Cruz State level policy makers can take a positive step forward by providing every district and school leader with a copy of this book Expertly organized and written

Villani's work provides answers to school leaders' key questions regarding establishing a comprehensive induction mentoring program. Readers will keep the book within reach as a most valued resource. Stephanie Hirsch, Executive Director, National Staff Development Council: A significant addition to the literature on mentoring in the education profession. This book provides various models of comprehensive programs implemented in school districts around the country and confirms the importance of mentoring to retain teachers, maintain consistency in academic programming, and develop a culture of continuous improvement in professional practice. Gail Connelly, Executive Director, National Association of Elementary School Principals: Susan Villani presents comprehensive mentoring programs as catalysts for school improvement and reflective practice. With a wealth of tools and models for establishing effective programs, this book addresses cultural competence, peer coaching, and retention of math/science and special education teachers. Villani's framework will strengthen professional learning communities and improve the effectiveness of our most valuable resource: teachers. Mary Forte Hayes, Executive Director, Massachusetts Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development: Establish a quality comprehensive mentoring program and improve teacher retention rates. This updated edition of Mentoring Programs for New Teachers outlines mentors' roles, mentor preparation, and the ways comprehensive mentoring programs support new teachers and educators. Readers will find: Descriptions of 18 successful real-world comprehensive mentoring programs on the state, district, regional, and national level; A list of 5 factors to consider when developing a comprehensive mentoring initiative; A rubric based on seven components of comprehensive mentoring programs; New material for supporting special education, math, and science teachers; Resources to use in program development or revision. The Journal of Rural Education, 1922

Journal of Rural Education, 1922 Five Standards for Effective Teaching Stephanie Stoll Dalton, 2007-11-02: An acclaimed research-based framework for promoting excellence. Based on a proven instructional model distilled over years of research, this book focuses on five essential pedagogy standards for guiding teaching practice in classrooms with diverse students, including English learners. Providing key indicators for each standard along with the theoretical rationale and best practice strategies, the book offers teachers invaluable guidance for enhancing language literacy, thinking, and content learning across the curricula. It also provides advice on creating classroom groupings for differentiating lessons and activities and includes extensive examples of practices from real-life classrooms. Stephanie Stoll Dalton, Ed.D., has taught diverse students from first to twelfth grade, community college, and as a teacher educator. She has consulted widely on teacher quality. She is currently with the U.S. Department of Education. Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation Francine P. Peterman, 2005-05-06: Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents an argument for and invites critical examination of teacher preparation and assessment practices in light of both the complexity and demands of urban settings and the theories of learning and learning to teach that guide teacher education practices. This dynamic approach distinguishes the author's stance on urban teacher assessment as one that can help address social justice issues related to gender race socioeconomic class and other differences and at the same time promote the professional development of all educators engaged in the process of learning to teach The contextually bound sociocultural stance that informs this book promises greater teacher and student achievement Culminating six years of vital dialogue and focused local activity among teachers and teacher educators from institutions in the Urban Network to Improve Teacher Education Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents the historical context that was examined for this work a theoretical framework to undergrad teacher preparation assessment and design principles to guide the development of assessment systems four case studies of participants struggles and successes in designing and implementing these systems and a discussion of the importance of context and current trends in assessment practices in urban teaching This volume is particularly relevant for university and school based teacher educators who help prepare teachers to work in urban schools and for personnel in state departments of education and other agencies who are responsible for certification and beginning teacher support While the focus is on preparing teachers for urban settings the theoretical and practical foundations and the case studies have broad implications and provide useful insights for anyone involved in developing and using performance assessment systems teacher educators university and school administrators classroom teachers and educational researchers
