A History of Women in Politics in Ghana 1957-1992 Eric Sakyi Nketiah, 2010-11-09 This work examines the history of Ghanaian women's involvement in the politics of the country prior to the launch of the Fourth Republic in January 1993 The political history of Ghana prior to 1993 showcases experience with various political systems Ghana for example had the experience of life under Prime Ministers Presidents and Military Heads of State Within all these experimental and sometimes even purely adventurous environments women played various roles The roles however differed from one regime to another This work has tried to briefly tell the political history of Ghana but highlighted the role of women in the life of this young West African country

Critical Perspectives in Politics and Socio-Economic Development in Ghana Wisdom J. Tettey, Korbla P. Pupilampu, Bruce J. Berman, 2003-01-01 This volume provides a comprehensive and integrated analysis of contemporary Ghanaian politics and economy and their relationship to culture It combines rich recent empirical material with sophisticated theoretical analyses bringing fresh and unique interdisciplinary perspectives to bear on the issues examined

Human Rights, Power and Civic Action Bård A. Andreassen, Gordon Crawford, 2013-07-18 Human Rights Power and Civic Action examines the interrelationship between struggles for human rights and the dynamics of power focusing on situations of poverty and oppression in developing countries It is argued that the concept of power is a relatively neglected one in the study of rights based approaches to development especially the ways in which structures and relations of power can limit human rights advocacy Therefore this book focuses on how local and national struggles for rights have been constrained by power relations and structural inequalities as well as the extent to which civic action has been able to challenge alter or transform such power structures and simultaneously to enhance protection of people's basic human rights Contributors examine and compare struggles to advance human rights by non-governmental actors in Cambodia China Ghana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe The country case studies analyse structures of power responsible for the negation and denial of human rights as well as how rights promoting organisations challenge such structures Utilising a comparative approach the book provides empirically grounded studies leading to new theoretical understanding of the interrelationships between human rights struggles power and poverty reduction Human Rights Power and Civic Action will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights politics power development and governance Politics in Ghana, 1982-1992 Mike Oquaye,2004 Ghana Under PNDC Rule Emmanuel Gyimah-Boadi,1993 Canadian Journal of African Studies ,2001 Baseline Survey of Civil Society Organizations in Ghana Kwame Bofo-Arthur,2007 Political Parties and Democracy in Ghana's Fourth Republic Kwame Akon Ninsin,F.
