The Strongest God:

The Strongest God Heretaunga Pat Baker, 1990 This historical novel brings a new perspective to events during the New Zealand Wars Traditional Maori beliefs were challenged by European concepts Maori and missionary tragically failed to understand each other's gods Pai Marire the new religion which the Hauhau brought to Opotiki was based on the wandering Jews of the Old Testament The religion of the new settlers often seemed to be based on money power and land This book is about the men and women of the 1860s the Reverend Carl Volkner and his wife Emma the Whakatohea leaders Nikora and Mihiterina and the chiefs and tribespeople together with visiting traders and the businessmen of Auckland It is a story of conflict between gods old and new between the old ways of the tribes and the new ways of the individual between those who belonged to the land and those who wanted to own it It is about people who sought peace in too many different ways and who were locked in an escalating drama of confrontation and misunderstanding It culminates in acts of violence which have reverberated down through the generations of both Maori and European New Zealanders Jacket

The Circle & the Spiral Eva Rask Knudsen, 2021-11-01 In Aboriginal and M ori literature the circle and the spiral are the symbolic metaphors for a never ending journey of discovery and rediscovery The journey itself with its indigenous perspectives and sense of orientation is the most significant act of cultural recuperation The present study outlines the fields of indigenous writing in Australia and New Zealand in the crucial period between the mid 1980s and the early 1990s particularly eventful years in which postcolonial theory attempted to centre the margins and indigenous writers were keen to escape the particular centering offered in search of other positions more in tune with their creative sensibilities Indigenous writing relinquished its narrative preference for social realism in favour of traversing old territory in new spiritual ways roots converted into routes Standard postcolonial readings of indigenous texts often overwrite the difference they seek to locate because critical orthodoxy predetermines what difference can be Critical evaluations still tend to eclipse the ontological grounds of Aboriginal and M ori traditions and specific ways of moving through and behaving in cultural landscapes and social contexts Hence the corrective applied in Circles and Spirals to look for locally and culturally specific tracks and traces that lead in other directions than those catalogued by postcolonial convention This agenda is pursued by means of searching enquiries into the historical anthropological political and cultural determinants of the present state of Aboriginal and M ori writing principally fiction Independent yet interrelated exemplary analyses of works by Keri Hulme and Patricia Grace and Mudrooroo and Sam Watson Australia provided the thick description that illuminates the author's central theses with comparative side glances at Witi Ihimaera Heretaunga Pat Baker and Alan Duff New Zealand and Archie Weller and Sally Morgan Australia The Saviors of Mankind William Riley Van Buskirk, 1929 The Rationalist Annual, 1930
