Naming Infinity Loren Graham, Jean-Michel Kantor, 2009-03-31 In 1913 Russian imperial marines stormed an Orthodox monastery at Mt Athos Greece to haul off monks engaged in a dangerously heretical practice known as Name Worshipping Exiled to remote Russian outposts the monks and their mystical movement went underground Ultimately they came across Russian intellectuals who embraced Name Worshipping and who would achieve one of the biggest mathematical breakthroughs of the twentieth century going beyond recent French achievements Loren Graham and Jean Michel Kantor take us on an exciting mathematical mystery tour as they unravel a bizarre tale of political struggles psychological crises sexual complexities and ethical dilemmas At the core of this book is the contest between French and Russian mathematicians who sought new answers to one of the oldest puzzles in math the nature of infinity The French school chased rationalist solutions The Russian mathematicians notably Dmitri Egorov and Nikolai Luzin who founded the famous Moscow School of Mathematics were inspired by mystical insights attained during Name Worshipping Their religious practice appears to have opened to them visions into the infinite and led to the founding of descriptive set theory The men and women of the leading French and Russian mathematical schools are central characters in this absorbing tale that could not be told until now Naming Infinity is a poignant human interest story that raises provocative questions about science and religion intuition and creativity

A Russian Psyche Alyssa W. Dinega, 2001-12-10 Russian poet Marina Tsvetaeva s powerful poetic voice and her tragic life have often prompted literary commentators to treat her as either a martyr or a monster Born in Russia in 1892 she emigrated to Europe in 1922 returned to the Soviet Union at the height of the Stalinist Terror and committed suicide in 1941 Alyssa Dinega focuses on the poetry rediscovering Tsvetaeva as a serious thinker with a coherent artistic and philosophical vision Spirit of the Totem Irena Maryniak,1995 The book presents an original interdisciplinary analysis of religious and mythological perspectives in fiction published in the Soviet Union between the mid 1960s and the mid 1980s In doing so it points to ways in which anthropological theory can be used as a framework for literary criticism It also shows how in the two decades before perestroika religion and mythology served as alternative models for the intellectual and political reorientation of Soviet society Selected works are explored with reference to a formative debate in anthropological studies on the nature and development of religion based on Edward B Tylor s theory of animism and Emile Durkheim s theory of totemism It is shown how the animist totemist dichotomy highlighted by the controversy is reflected in Russian religious thought before 1917 and particularly in the literature of the Soviet era Within the framework of this debate a selection of novels is discussed in the light of a range of mythological and religious systems Attention is drawn to the connection between Valentin Rasputin s religious vision and traditional Siberian beliefs particularly those of the Buryat The Georgian novel Data Tutashkia by Chabua Amiredzhibi is analysed with reference to Zoroastrian thought Daniil Granin s Kartina The Picture serves as an example of a work where in accordance with Tylor s theory notions of art and beauty take on an animist quality It is argued that early fiction by Chingiz Aitmatov reveals a tension between animist perceptions and the totemic understanding of religion and mirrors aspects of pre Islamic Central Asian religious tradition The writing of Vladimir Tendriakov offers an example of a vision divided between an awareness of Christian dilemmas and loyalty to Marxist Leninist sociological models The study also shows how Durkheim s theory of religion as an expression of a group s awareness of its identity can be related to ideas put forward by Russian nationalist writers Iurii Bondarev Sergei Alekseev and Vasilii Belov It suggests that examples of fiction by Petr Proskurin and later works by Chingiz Aitmatov and Vladimir Tendriakov indicate revived interest in the God building theory of Maksim Gor kii and Anatolii Lunacharskii In conclusion the book argues that subtextual religious and mythological narratives in Soviet fiction published in the years between the fall of Khrushchev and the Millennium of Christianity in Rus provided a model for new literary discourse under perestroika and for subsequent political transformations Monthly Index of Russian Accessions Library of Congress. Monthly List of Russian Accessions Library of Congress. Processing Department,1965-10 Putin's Dark Ages Dina Khapaeva,2023-10-26 Two decades before the war against Ukraine a special operation was launched against Russian historical memory aggressively reshaping the nation s understanding of its history and identity The Kremlin s militarization of Russia through World War II propaganda is well documented but the glorification of Russian medieval society and its warlords as a source of support for Putinism has yet to be explored This book offers the first comparison of Putin s political neomedievalism and re Stalinization and introduces the concept of mobmemory to the study of right wing populism It argues that the celebration of the oprichnina Ivan the Terrible s regime of state terror 1565 1572 has been fused with the rehabilitation of Stalinism to reconstruct the Russian Empire The post Soviet case suggests that the global obsession with the Middle Ages is not purely an aesthetic movement but a potential weapon against democracy The book is intended for students scholars and non specialists interested in understanding Russia s anti modern politics and the Russians support for the terror unleashed against Ukraine
