This volume of ten essays discusses the pivotal role that letters have played in social economic and political history from the seventeenth to the twentieth century The recent scholarly interest in the history of reading has as yet yielded few studies which consider letters as a category of readable material The contributors to this book seek to redress this oversight viewing letters as texts which can reveal information not only about their writers and readers but about the wider historical context in which they were written Topics covered include the mercantile letter diplomatic correspondence and what these epistolary forms suggest about the rise of a polite literate culture in the eighteenth century the experience of immigration from Europe to America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the relationship through the letter and the working of gender in the epistolary form Rebecca Earle provides an overview of how the study of letter writing can open up new avenues of historical as well as literary investigation This together with contributions from leading international scholars makes Epistolary Selves an essential text for those researching the letter genre Patricia Roc MICHAEL HODGSON,2013

Popular Music Roman Iwaschkin,2016-04-14 This is a comprehensive guide to popular music literature first published in 1986 Its main focus is on American and British works but it includes significant works from other countries making it truly international in scope Autobiography of Erastus O. Haven ... Erastus Otis Haven,1883 Erastus O Haven 1820 1881 was a minister and leader of the Methodist Episcopal Church during a vigorous period of its growth and development The child of a Methodist minister and farmer he was born in Boston and spent most of his childhood in Massachusetts Upon graduating from Wesleyan University Haven established a life long pattern of combining the ministry with teaching This eventually led him to assume the presidencies of the University of Michigan and Northwestern University as well as the chancellorship of Syracuse University Haven was deeply interested in educational issues affecting students at all levels and in helping to develop a strong Methodist presence among institutions of higher learning His presidency at the University of Michigan along with an earlier four year stint there as a Latin professor forced him to deal with the specific problems of a secular state university Among the topics he discusses during the Michigan years are hazing secret societies fiscal issues and institutional administration In midlife Haven left his initial position at Michigan to become editor of Zion s Herald a Methodist newspaper that gave him a voice in the Church s major controversies over slavery church polity and temperance Later he resigned the presidency of Northwestern University to become Secretary of the Board of Education for the Methodist Episcopal Church Haven also served two terms in the Massachusetts Senate and was residing as a bishop in San Francisco when he died leaving unfinished this autobiography completed from his writings by the editor The United Kingdom Since 1945

Chris Wrigley, 2025-12-26 The United Kingdom Since 1945 A Post Imperial Nation is an economic and social history providing an appraisal of seventy five years of British and Northern Irish history The UK emerged from the Second World War victorious but impoverished After a period of austerity the UK participated in the boom in the international economy that continued from the 1950s until the 1970s Harold Macmillan the Conservative Party Prime Minister famously told the electorate in 1957 that the country had never had it so good With global decolonization UK trade turned more to the European Economic Community EEC and less to the Commonwealth countries with the UK joining the EEC and its successor the European Union from 1973 until 2020 All four countries saw population growth both from the birth rate and substantial net inward migration But as this volume argues developments were not uncomplicated The need for more housing for example was partly met by tower blocks but some of these deteriorated after relatively short lives and were demolished while others became sink estates Urban change also saw the decline of shopping centres and small independent shops In addition to examining this economic and social change Chris Wrigley focuses on popular culture from the growth in TV to developments in music and art as well as the continued influences of declining entertainments like the music hall The volume combines a focus on post imperial features with a recognition of the long shadow cast by the Second World War The United Kingdom Since 1945 is distinctive in its long timespan and its breadth of coverage and is the perfect introduction for all readers interested in the complex contemporary history of this diverse nation The Time of Your Life John Burningham, 2009-09-07 Ageing is that part of the future that we try to keep in the future And nobody likes to get old that doesn't mean to say you have to be an old fart sitting in the pub talking about what happened in the 1960s Mick Jagger John Burningham has collected fine examples of the wisdom and wit that comes with age from those in the know woven with a rich selection of quotes and fifty poignant drawings by Burningham himself Autobiography of Andrew Dickson White ... Andrew Dickson White, 1905 British Catalogue of Music, 1957-1985 Michael D.
