

White House Commission On

Justin S. Vaughn, Jose D. Villalobos

White House Commission On:

Report by the White House Commission on Small Business United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Small Business,1980 The Hidden White House Robert Klara,2013-10-22 In 1948 Harry Truman President of the United States almost fell through the ceiling of the Blue Room in a bathtub into a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution A team of the nation s top architects was hastily assembled to inspect the White House and upon seeing the state the old mansion was in insisted the First Family be evicted immediately What followed was the biggest home improvement job the nation had ever seen Czars in the White House Justin S. Vaughn,Jose D. Villalobos,2015-06-02 When Barack Obama entered the White House he faced numerous urgent issues Despite the citizens demand for strong presidential leadership President Obama following a long standing precedent for the development and implementation of major policies appointed administrators so called policy czars charged with directing the response to the nation s most pressing crises Combining public administration and political science approaches to the study of the American presidency and institutional politics Justin S Vaughn and Jos D Villalobos argue that the creation of policy czars is a strategy for combating partisan polarization and navigating the federal government s complexity They present a series of in depth analyses of the appointment role and power of various czars the energy czar in the mid 1970s the drug czar in the late 1980s the AIDS czar in the 1990s George W Bush s trio of national security czars after 9 11 and Obama s controversial czars for key domestic issues Laying aside inflammatory political rhetoric Vaughn and Villalobos offer a sober empirical analysis of what precisely constitutes a czar why Obama and his predecessors used czars and what role they have played in the modern presidency
