Who Is This Jesus:

Who is this Jesus? Michael Green,1991 Who is, This, JESUS ? Clifford Auten,2022-12-15 Written by a non scholar The writer is not presenting himself as a bible scholar nor does he present himself to be anything other than what he is a Christian who has been observant generally without a judgmental eye but wondering why we do what we do and how can we do better to exemplify Christ in our lives and why should we The main body of the book is a prose designed to present Jesus from the beginning through the end of time as described in the Bible From the perspective of one whose chosen behavior resulted in the need of the Savior the writer presents the true perspective of being personally responsible and personally participating in as well as observing the barbaric crucifixion process Jesus suffered to provide Himself as the chosen Lamb of God Each verse of the prose is supported by scripture and each scripture is presented to the reader using five translations for the reader's convenience for comparisons The writer's hope is for the reader to study the scriptures compare them from different translations view them in context of the surrounding verses and more clearly see how Jesus is presented to us in the Bible Who is This JESUS began several years ago as a song to praise the Lord for who He is and what HE has chosen to do for mankind With time more verses were added until they would not fit in as a song so it changed to a poem and then more were added until the rhyming was not consistent thus the author has chosen to consider it a prose Please read it as though someone is speaking it rather than as an English composition Some punctuations capitalizations etc are for emphasis and hopefully will not confuse you The first presentation is without footnotes intentionally for fluidity of reading The second presents footnotes to validate each phrase or sentence as being supported by scripture Then are the scriptures coordinated with the footnotes to simplify the access of scripture for the reader Following the prose the writer gives his personal opinion as a non scholar as to how to apply Biblical truth into daily life and why we should pursue doing so followed by two poems written by the author for the enjoyment and hopefully encouragement of the reader Translations used NASB New American Standard Bible 1995 AMP Amplified Bible CJB Complete Jewish Bible KJV King James Version NIV New International Version

Who Is This Jesus Who Died for You? Aubrey Duncan,2016-04-30 Who is this Jesus who died for you is a timely revelation on the life and ministry of Jesus Christ It explores His many attributes and reveal who He truly is In an atmosphere of vain religious rhetoric and theological confusion this book will enlighten edify and draw you into a closer relationship with the only Savior of the world Jesus Christ After His resurrection Jesus appeared to two of His disciples who were disappointed that the one whom they had hoped to deliver their nation Israel from Roman oppression was crucified on a cruel cross As He joined them in conversation Jesus offered them words of comfort by reminding them of what He had been telling them for more than three years that He would die but would be resurrected on the third day They of course had forgotten what He had told them So what did Jesus do The Gospel writer Luke tells us And beginning at Moses and all the prophets he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself Luke 24 27 He gave them a Bible Study The book Who is this Jesus who died for you does exactly that By taking a deep look into the Scriptures both Old and New testaments it presents a heart warming easy to understand account of His pre existence His prophetic life His sacrifice His High Priestly ministry and His soon coming as Lord of lords and King of kings Like the disappointed disciples on the road to Emmaus your hearts will burn with joy love and comfort as you read the pages of this book and discover who truly is this Jesus who died for you
