discourses by Osho on Adhyaya 4 of the Bhagavad Gita explores the realm of Knowledge Action Renunciation particularly in connection with traditional practices that have existed in India for thousands of years Osho helps us rediscover the true essence and meaning of ancient rituals that have formed the foundation of India's cultural and religious heritage for centuries He suggests that if human beings regardless of religion or tradition learned again how to pray and perform religious rituals as desireless actions as pure acts of surrender humanity could shift from organized religions to what Osho calls religiousness the pure essence of all religions that has been lost through the ages Throughout the Gita Krishna talks about many different paths That's why the Gita is extraordinary The Koran is a scripture belonging to one system there is no mention of other paths The Bible belongs to one system there is no mention of other paths The words of Mahavira describe one system he does not speak of other paths Buddha's words relate to one system he does not mention other paths But the Gita is extraordinary If we consider all the systems mankind has developed we realize that the essence of all of them is included in the Gita
