Who Lives Here Storyteller:

The Storyteller's Daughter Saira Shah, 2007-12-18 Imagine that a jewel like garden overlooking Kabul is your ancestral home Imagine a kitchen made fragrant with saffron strands and cardamom pods simmering in an authentic pilau Now remember that you were born in London your family in exile and that you have never seen Afghanistan in peacetime These are but the starting points of Saira Shah's memoir by turns inevitably exotic and unavoidably heartbreaking in which she explores her family's history in and out of Afghanistan As an accomplished journalist and documentarian her film Beneath the Veil unflinchingly depicted for CNN viewers the humiliations forced on women under Taliban rule Shah returned to her family's homeland cloaked in the burqa to witness the pungent and shocking realities of Afghan life As the daughter of the Sufi fabulist Idries Shah primed by a lifetime of listening to her father's stories she eagerly sought out from the mouths of Afghan refugees in Pakistan the rich and living myths that still sustain this battered culture of warriors And she discovered that in Afghanistan all the storytellers have been men until now

The Storyteller's Nights Desire, Jean-Michel Désiré, 2010-08 When Guillaume de Rochefort decided it was time to understand the meaning of his recurring dream he had no idea he was embarking on a journey into madness a demented dimension where nothing was what it seemed and where his only chances of survival were faith and love From the cosmopolitan city of Montreal to the shores of the heavenly tropical island of Mauritius Guillaume will encounter a myriad of feelings and circumstances that will keep him searching for the truth until the very end

The Storyteller's Daughter Victoria Scott, 2025-01-15 The BRAND NEW beautiful historical novel from Victoria Scott perfect for fans of Evie Woods Kate Storey and Rachel Burton A secret buried for decades A story that will change everything 1940 When twenty one year old Nita Bineham is offered the chance of independence away from the high walls of her family's Surrey estate she grasps it with both hands But her new role at a local newspaper coincides with the emergence of a sinister rumour in their quiet village that there is a traitor in their midst Nita is determined to prove herself by uncovering the truth but is she prepared for revelations that could change her life forever 2008 Following the death of her great aunt Beth flees London for the privacy of rural

Surrey Within the confines of her family's dilapidated manor house she hides from the dual wreckage of her career and her marriage But when her aunt's dying words lead her to a stack of old newspaper articles Beth finds herself drawn into a decades old mystery about a long buried secret and an enemy dangerously close to home Praise for Victoria Scott Beautifully written and delightfully unsettling an evocative read set in an unusual landscape that will pull you in from the first page Rachel Burton The twists and turns revealed kept me turning pages way longer than I was meant to stay awake The way Meredith's mind gets confused as she learns more and more tugged at my heart and reading Ellen's experiences with her beau and how his mental health was essentially compartmentalised in an era when there wasn't much knowledge was heartwrenching Within the tale there are elements of the gothic tradition with old houses fog rising waters stormy weather and more The reader's pulse rate rises as we are committed to following the action I thoroughly enjoyed The House In The Water It consumed me from the start It was the first book by Victoria Scott but I certainly she she will write more Don't you love a dual time line novel I do and this one is exceptional I have read the author's earlier work and this is straying into much darker territory but I think it only serves to show what a great writer she is Atmospheric gripping with huge heart and impossible to put down the very best sort of book Beautiful captivating prose kept me totally engaged in both timelines Wonderful My first by this author but not the last This is definitely a spellbinding and unsettling tale with a dash of romance set in WW2 and 2013 that might haunt your dreams and leave you with a lot to think about A riveting read I was engrossed in the story from the start May Day House is a rehab house for soldiers during WWII They are cared for and sent back to war Years later a couple buys the house which soon appears to be haunted by the soldiers who had been there It is a great story

The Last Storytellers Richard Hamilton, 2011-05-26 Marrakech is the heart and lifeblood of Morocco's ancient storytelling tradition For nearly a thousand years storytellers have gathered in the Jemaa el Fna the legendary square of the city to recount ancient folktales and fables to rapt audiences But this unique chain of oral tradition that has passed seamlessly from generation to generation is teetering on the brink of extinction The competing distractions of television movies and the internet have drawn the crowds away from the storytellers and few have the desire to learn the stories and continue their legacy Richard Hamilton has witnessed at first hand the death throes of this rich and captivating tradition and in the labyrinth of the Marrakech medina has tracked down the last few remaining storytellers recording stories that are replete with the mysteries and beauty of the Maghreb Shi, the Story-teller Elliott Irving Osgood, 1926 Swinton's Story-teller, 1883 Alaska Native Writers, Storytellers & Orators Ronald Spatz, 1999 The Irish Storyteller Georges Denis Zimmermann, 2001 Supported by documents many of which were not readily available or have never been published before this book studies images of the Irish traditional storyteller offered at different periods from several viewpoints and for various purposes Invariables changes ruptures and the effect of conflicting attitudes and ideologies are identified Contextualized in Irish history and on the wider European scene this huge book explores the testimony of early antiquarians accounts of meetings with storytellers by 18th or 19th century travelers representations of acts of elite storytelling in ancient Irish literature or of popular ones in oral tradition itself and in fiction in English attention is given to the works of Maria Edgeworth Lady Morgan the Banim brothers and Griffin Carleton Lover Le Fanu Somerville and Ross Yeats Synge George Moore and Joyce and some more recent authors The evolution of the aims and methods of folklorists from the Romantic Age to the institutionalization of collecting and to modern ethnographic projects and the links between definitions of folklore and cultural nationalism are investigated as are the complex relationships between storytelling history and truth and the concepts of Irishness and tradition Another section tries to establish what is known of actual storytelling in the 19th century and in the first half of the 20th the tellers training their techniques and conception of tradition their status the etiquette of performance and the role of the audience Themes and formal characteristics of different kinds of oral narratives are examined
