

STEPHEN SENN

The background of the book cover is a light yellowish-tan color. In the upper right, there are several orange plastic pill bottles, some of which are tipped over, spilling red, oblong capsules. In the center, a white grid is overlaid on the background. On the grid, there are several red capsules scattered around. A graph is drawn on the grid with a solid red line and a dashed green line. The red line starts high on the left and curves downwards to the right. The green dashed line starts low on the left and curves upwards to the right. They appear to intersect. There are also some faint handwritten markings on the grid, including a symbol that looks like σ in the top left corner.
