Teaching Black Speculative Fiction KaaVonia Hinton, Karen Michele Chandler, 2024-03-18 Teaching Black Speculative Fiction: Equity, Justice, and Antiracism edited by KaaVonia Hinton and Karen Michele Chandler offers innovative approaches to teaching Black speculative fiction, e.g. science fiction, fantasy, horror, in ways that will inspire middle and high school students to think, talk, and write about issues of equity, justice, and antiracism. The book highlights texts by seminal authors such as Octavia E. Butler and influential and emerging authors including Nnedi Okorafor, Kacen Callender, B. B. Alston, Tomi Adeyemi, and Bethany C. Morrow. Each chapter in Teaching Black Speculative Fiction introduces a Black speculative text, and its author describes how the text engages with issues of equity, justice, and or antiracism, explains and describes how one theory or approach helps elucidate the key text's concern with equity, justice, and or antiracism, and offers engaging teaching activities that encourage students to read the focal text, facilitate exploration of the text, and a theoretical lens or critical approach, and that guide students to consider ways to extend the focus on equity, justice, and or antiracism to action in their own lives and communities.
