Frostig, Phyllis Maslow, 1973. This book concerns itself with the education of children with special learning problems. To that end, the child-specifics of developmental status, overall motivation, and surrounding social environment are reviewed and included in the planning of educational strategies and methods. The content of material can be modified; the style of presentation may be altered; and the dimension of the learning environment itself can be adjusted. Teachers of children with learning problems will find advice on how to craft a remedial plan with specific objectives followed by objective testing, which should, when coupled with human understanding and perceptivity, help the child to find a more competent learning and life style.
