Team Entrepreneurship:

The Entrepreneurial Group Martin Ruef, 2010-07-01 Recent surveys show that more than half of American entrepreneurs share ownership in their business startups rather than going it alone Yet the media and many scholars continue to perpetuate the myth of the lone visionary who single handedly revolutionizes the marketplace In The Entrepreneurial Group Martin Ruef shatters this myth demonstrating that teams not individuals are the leading force behind entrepreneurial startups This is the first book to provide an in depth sociological analysis of entrepreneurial groups and to put forward a theoretical framework for understanding activities and outcomes within them

Theorising Undergraduate Entrepreneurship Education

Guillermo J. Larios-Hernandez, Andreas Walmsley, Itzel Lopez-Castro, 2022-01-31 This book engages ongoing debates about the nature manifestation and purpose of entrepreneurship education EE It presents theoretical and practical perspectives on the challenges and opportunities that entrepreneurship educators face globally to equip undergraduate students with entrepreneurial skills and more generally develop their entrepreneurial mindsets and capabilities taking advantage of programmes and curricula available in their ecosystem Divided into three sections the chapters written by recognized experts deliver distinctive approaches to undergraduate EE an analysis of entrepreneurial mindset building perspectives and cases and proposals of undergraduate entrepreneurship programs that go beyond the traditional higher education milieu This volume provides entrepreneurship educators with a voice to explain how they participate in the topic of entrepreneurship how undergraduate students engage and respond to EE and how institutional frameworks for EE and more generally the entrepreneurship education ecosystem support undergraduate EE

Interactive Collaborative Learning

Michael E. Auer, David Guralnick, James Uhomobhi, 2016-12-31 This book presents the proceedings of the 19th International Conference on Interactive Collaborative Learning held 21-23 September 2016 at Clayton Hotel in Belfast UK We are currently witnessing a significant transformation in the development of education The impact of globalisation on all areas of human life the exponential acceleration of developments in both technology and the global markets and the growing need for flexibility and agility are essential and challenging elements of this process that have to be addressed in general but especially in the context of engineering education To face these topical and very real challenges higher education is called upon to find innovative responses Since being founded in 1998 this conference has consistently been devoted to finding new approaches to learning with a focus on collaborative learning Today the ICL conferences have established themselves as a vital forum for the exchange of information on key trends and findings and of practical lessons learned while developing and testing elements of new technologies and pedagogies in learning
