Beyond Memory Diane Neumaier, 2004 Photography possesses a powerful ability to bear witness and remembrance shape and even alter recollection In Beyond Memory Soviet Nonconformist Photography and Photo Related Works of Art the general editor Diane Neumaier and twenty three contributors offer a rigorous examination of the medium's role in late Soviet unofficial art Focusing on the period between the mid 1950s and the late 1980s they explore artists' unusually inventive and resourceful uses of photography within a highly developed Soviet dissident culture During this time lack of high quality photographic materials complemented by tremendous creative impulses prompted artists to explore experimental photo processes such as camera and darkroom manipulations photomontage and hand coloring Photography also took on a provocative array of forms including photo installation artist made samizdat self published books photo realist painting and many other surprising applications of the flexible medium Beyond Memory shows how innovative conceptual moves and approaches to form and content echoes of Soviet society's coded communication and a Russian sense of absurdity were common in the Soviet cultural underground Collectively the works in this anthology demonstrate how late Soviet artists employed irony and invention to make positive use of difficult circumstances In the process the volume illuminates the multiple characters of photography itself and highlights the leading role that the medium has come to play in the international art world today Beyond Memory stands on its own as a rigorous examination of photography's place in late Soviet unofficial art while also serving as a supplement to the traveling exhibition of the same title The Aesthetics of Boredom Agnė Narušytė, 2010 This book discusses boredom as an aesthetic category that helps to explain a tendency in late 20th c art to focus on everyday things avoid definite meaning or create nothing The aesthetics of boredom result from a paradoxical situation when aesthetic experiences are created from banality the very phenomenon that artists try to escape from Such an attitude of indifferent detachment from Soviet reality formed into a strong artistic statement in Lithuanian photography of the 1980s when photographers not only represented the boring existence in the USSR but also emphasised the banality of environment and emptiness of space through visual monotony They replaced the decisive moment with chance and tried to slow the time of the photograph thus focusing on the value of the eventless present moment The Memory of the Photograph, 2001 Boken har blitt til i forbindelse med forskningsprosjektet The memory of the photograph som har som målsetting skape oversikt over fotosamlinger i Norden baltiske stater og Russland Boken diskuterer og informerer om katalogisering og klassifikasjon på områdene og har blant annet bibliotekarere som jobber med fotosamlinger som målgruppe Illustrert Engelsk tekst Vitas Luckus Gintaras Česonis, 2017* The Lithuanian SSR Society of Art Photography (1969-1989) Vytautas Michelkevičius, 2011 Second Nature Peter Peryer, 1995 Reproductions of 60 photographs by the
