

The Sequence

The sequence

-----

Begins a sentence;
Follows paragraph
With comma, colon
Question mark, then
Full stop and life goes on
With events one another
In melodious action

To be born helpless
Greet the light of morn
With a sharp wail
And then lost in dreams of heaven
An infant to a laughing, puling child
Now with mirth and mischief
Transformed by time's magic wand
Into coat and trousers clad lad
Youthful and ambitious, at last a man
To devise scheme and plan
For gold or for bread

And fall in love and wed
And then grow
Gray and withered
To bud, bloom, and pass away
Life like a flower
Doomed to swift decay
Years speed by
The flower fares and fades
But its fragrance stays.....

The Voice Walter De la Mare,1986-01 An illustrated collection of thirteen poems describing both quiet scenes from daily life and fanciful flights of the imagination      The Voice Walter De la Mare,1986 An illustrated collection of thirteen poems describing both quiet scenes from daily life and fanciful flights of the imagination      Goethe's Poetry and the Philosophy of Nature Regina Sachers,2017-10-23 At the beginning of the nineteenth century philosophy and theology come under increasing pressure owing to the emergence of the modern sciences The collection Gott und Welt is Goethe's poetic contribution to this conflict in which an alternative to orthodox Christianity was being sought Following the collection's various stages of composition and publication this study offers new readings of some of Goethe's best known poems Die Metamorphose der Pflanzen Dauer im Wechsel Urworte Orphisch and Wiederfinden Sachers shows that Gott und Welt is the long poem on nature which Goethe attempted to write for the last third of his life As such it represents Goethe's unique answers to the intellectual challenges posed by the dawning age of science Regina Sachers is Lecturer in German at Exeter College Oxford      The Principles and Progress of English Poetry Charles Mills Gayley,Clement Calhoun Young,1905      The Poetics of Migration in Contemporary Irish Poetry Ailbhe McDaid,2017-11-29 This book offers fresh critical interpretation of two of the central tenets of Irish culture migration and memory From its starting point with the New Irish generation of poets in the United States during the 1980s and concluding with the technological innovations of 21st century poetry this study spans continents generations genders and sexualities to reconsider the role of memory and of migration in the work of a range of contemporary Irish poets Combining sensitive close readings and textual analysis with thorough theoretical application it sets out the formal thematic socio cultural and literary contexts of migration as an essential aspect of Irish literature This book is essential reading for literary critics academics cultural commentators and students with an interest in contemporary poetry Irish studies diaspora studies and memory studies      On Shakespeare in Sonnets E. L. Riden,2017-06-23 Reader Response Theory began to take hold in the 1960s Much like the phenomenological approach to criticism that preceded it it allows both reader and author intentionality and conscious presence and it gives the reader particular presence in the fulfillment or completion of the text The work of art mediates between author and reader and the reader participates in an interpretive community that gives the work life and liveliness This book is divided into three sections Part I discusses the history and practice of Reader Response criticism Part II comprises a collection of thirty eight sonnets responding both critically and creatively to Shakespeare's works and Part III discusses the poems of Part II as both creative and critical acts elaborating on what they aim to show about the plays and how Shakespeare's plays continue to encourage varied analytical and personal response As shown here the creative and the critical need not be separate exclusive acts each invades the other      Poetry's Voice - Society's Norms Angelika Neuwirth,Andreas Pflitsch,2006 Literary works are much more than mere illustrations of societal conditions Literature is the setting in which society discusses itself In this volume international scholars of Literary Studies as well as specialists in Arabic Hebrew Persian and Turkish Studies explore the dimensions and ways of how writers from the classical period to modernity tackled the values of their societies From the contents Religious Norms Advocating Domesticating Literary Freedom Literary Norms and the Travelling of Genres Linguistic Norms Writing in the Stepmother Tongue Gender Norms Inverted and Subverted Societal Norms I The Poet Involved Societal Norms II Imagining Communities Debating the Collective

Philosophy of Lyric Voice Karen Simecek, 2023-10-05 Carefully considering the difference in the philosophical potential of page poetry and performance poetry Karen Simecek argues that it is only by considering them side by side that the unique cognitive value of each can be realised Focusing on spoken word poetry reveals the importance of voice and embodied words to the differing epistemic rewards of engaging with contemporary works of poetry in both private reading and live performance This concept of embodied voice progresses a new line of thinking in the cognitivism debate and unlocks the philosophical value of engaging with poetry Simecek s discussion of performed poetry also advances discussions of affect and experience in contemporary analytic aesthetics which raise new insights and connections within the field The moral significance of the differing effects of poetry finds comprehensive articulation through a rich philosophical analysis of the thoughts and affects which arise in particular contexts Simecek concludes that when page poetry is treated as paradigmatic this enables reflection in the singular whereas taking poetry in live performance as paradigmatic enables reflection on what is shared and shareable with others
