Voices From World Religions:

The Community of Religions Wayne Teasdale, George F. Cairns, 2018 The papers in this volume form a record of the 1993 Parliament of the World's Religions which was one of the largest interfaith gatherings ever held Representatives from minority ethnic and tribal religions took the podium as equals alongside representatives from the world's largest religious traditions This volume contains major addresses and reflections of this parliament set in context by an introduction and conclusion by the editors Bloomsbury Publishing

Her Voice, Her Faith Katherine Young, 2018-03-13 They say religion is a personal and private affair But when a woman believes in a tradition she has a relationship to that faith beyond her sacred space Religious traditions historically poor treatment of women has lead many to question why they believe How has their tradition either embraced and enlightened or excluded and confined women throughout history Her Voice Her Faith presents the personal and historical perspectives of women who not only live their faith day to day but who also know their religion's history with women in general

Voices from World Religions Henry O. Thompson, 1993

What Men Owe to Women John C. Raines, Daniel C. Maguire, 2001-01-04 What Men Owe to Women brings together a distinguished group of male scholars to address gender justice in world religions It includes contributions representing a wide range of traditions Islam Judaism Hinduism Roman Catholicism Protestantism Taoism Buddhism and African and Native American religions This book acknowledges the patriarchal overload of these traditions and institutes a creative search for the helpful but neglected resources of the traditions themselves The contributors show how these resources support the economic and political empowerment of women and assist a rethinking of gender relations in terms of genuine mutuality In addition they share information on their own lives and those of the women in their families that illuminate the discussion The book builds upon the enormous international feminist literature that has indicted the religions of the world for their insensitivity to women and their sacralization of sexism It then looks into the causes of the fear that underlies much sexism and studies the distortion of religious symbols that supports sexism and masks men's obligations Contributors include Marvin M Ellison Asghar Ali Engineer Farid Esack Ze'ev W Falk Christopher Ronwani n te Jocks Daniel C Maguire Mutombo Nkulu N Sengha Tavivat Puntarigvivat John C Raines Gerard S Sloyan Anantanand Rambachan and Liu Xiaogan

Her Voice, Her Faith Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 2018 Key religious women speak frankly about their faith and it's history with women

The Dawn of Religious Pluralism Richard Hughes Seager, 1993 Nothing like the 1893 World's Parliament of Religions had been seen in the history of the world and nothing like it was to be seen for again for many years a gathering of representatives of numerous world religions for an exchange of views It was a turning point in American life presaging the multiculturalism of a century later This volume contains a selection of 60 representative and revealing addresses given to the Parliament with authoritative introductions and notes The addresses include contributions by Protestant mainstream ministers African Americans Roman Catholics Orthodox Christians Jews Muslims Buddhists Hindus and representatives of other Asian religions

Also included are various points of contact and contention in which religious leaders attempted to analyze or reach out to their counterparts in other traditions

The World's Religions after September 11 Arvind Sharma, 2008-11-30 This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Convening on the fifth anniversary of the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center the global congress The World's Religions after September 11 explored the negative and positive possibilities of the religious dimensions of life The presentations from the congress have been pulled together in this set which addresses religion's intersection with human rights spirituality science healing the media international diplomacy globalization war and peace and more This comprehensive set includes contributions from such well known scholars of religion as Arvind Sharma and a host of others from all the world's religious traditions This set is an unprecedented examination of religion's influence on modern life an honest assessment of how religion can either destroy us or preserve us and a thorough exploration of what steps might be necessary for all religions to join together as a force for good Because of the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11 2001 the very concept of religion underwent a paradigm shift Instead of standing for virtue and piety peace and harmony the word religion also came to be inextricably associated with evil aggression and terror People around the world began to question whether the religious and secular dimensions of modern life can be reconciled whether the different religions of the world can ever coexist in harmony Indeed the very future of religion itself has sometimes seemed to be uncertain or at least suspect

World'S Living Faiths: Voice & Visions (Set Of 3 Vols.) Charles Frederick Weller, 2002 Sourcebook of the World's Religions Joel Beversluis, 2011-02-08 Now in its third edition this is the most comprehensive work available on the rich variety of paths available to today's spiritual seekers More than an academic reference it explores how religions can collaborate to help the world Essays exploring the realm of building an interfaith community add to the book's detailed portraits of the major religious traditions The Sourcebook also contains essays on spiritual practices as diverse as theosophy wicca and indigenous religions This revised edition of the Sourcebook offers an unparalleled look at where spirituality is headed in the coming millennium

Hearing the Voice of God Mordecai Schreiber, 2013-04-04 In an age when technology is making our world feel increasingly small and far flung peoples are interacting with each other more regularly than at any other time in history the common threads running through vastly different civilizations are not only more obvious but more important to our understanding of ourselves as members of the human race In Hearing the Voice of God In Search of Prophecy Mordecai Schreiber explores one of these common threads the Jewish prophetic tradition Schreiber examines the roots of the prophetic tradition in Judaism and demonstrates how it has influenced the prophets of later religions how its tenets have been replicated by major social and political figures of recent centuries and how it ultimately has the power to define each person's understanding of his or her responsibilities as a member of the human race This is an important text for anyone who wishes to understand the Jewish prophetic tradition that has informed the development of today's world religions and societal laws

The World's Congress of Religions John Wesley Hanson, 1894 Fratelli Tutti in Conversation Joseph Tham, Sameer Advani, 2026-02-03 This volume explores how major religious traditions engage with Pope Francis' encyclical Fratelli Tutti offering comparative insights into fraternity, solidarity, and ethical responsibility in a global bioethical discourse. Bringing together perspectives from Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Confucianism, the book examines how Fratelli Tutti resonates with and challenges diverse theological and moral frameworks. Contributors reflect on religious responsibility, ethical pluralism, and the prospects for interreligious solidarity amid global fragmentation. The volume offers a nuanced account of both convergence and contestation across traditions. Designed for scholars and advanced students in religious studies, theology, bioethics, and comparative ethics, this book will be of particular interest to those engaged in interfaith dialogue and global moral discourse.

Judaism at the World's Parliament of Religions, 1894 'The world's religions' series George Thomas Bettany, 1892 The Voice of Isis Harriette Augusta Curtiss, Frank Homer Curtiss, 1926 Fratelli Tutti in Conversation Joseph Tham, Sameer Advani, 2026 This volume explores how major religious traditions engage with Pope Francis's encyclical Fratelli Tutti offering comparative insights into fraternity, solidarity, and ethical responsibility in a global bioethical discourse. Bringing together perspectives from Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Confucianism, the book examines how Fratelli Tutti resonates with and challenges diverse theological and moral frameworks. Contributors reflect on religious responsibility, ethical pluralism, and the prospects for interreligious solidarity amid global fragmentation. The volume offers a nuanced account of both convergence and contestation across traditions. Designed for scholars and advanced students in religious studies, theology, bioethics, and comparative ethics, this book will be of particular interest to those engaged in interfaith dialogue and global moral discourse. Dialogue Among the Faith Communities Lucien F. Cosijns, 2008 After twenty-five centuries of rapid human evolution, dialogue has now come to be a word and concept of daily use in the media and a theme of discussion all over the world. In this current period of our human history, the centuries-long struggle for survival and our belligerent confrontation with each other is being replaced by a new era of collaboration in dialogue. The most intriguing aspect of this new dialogue is that the interfaith conversation has extended worldwide within the past fifteen years. Ultimately, this new conversation has resulted in efforts towards a corroborative dialogue between the world of faiths and the political world. This book's aim is to sketch this striking movement in its philosophical and religious evolution and expression.

The Works of Orestes A. Brownson: Religion and society Orestes Augustus Brownson, 1883 Dissonant Voices Harold A. Netland, 1999-04 The New Voice in Race Adjustments Arcadius McSwain Trawick, 1914
