Crone's Wines Margaret Rockwell Finch, 2017-07-10 The poems in Crone's Wines often unlock the memories at the fringes of consciousness making them come alive or reflect on the mysterious and unspoken casting them into the realm of the familiar With a mix of formal and free verse poems Crone's Wines is wide ranging in style and scope its many preoccupations include solitude nature family love even the lightheartedness of cat poems and aging and death as befits the late poems subtitle informed by the poet's age There is a sense of the spiritual and meditative in the universal poems and a fierce openness in the poems of personal relationship often intimate in their recollections This a rewarding collection with a lifetime of memories and experience delivered with wit and wisdom PRAISE FOR CRONE'S WINES Margaret Rockwell Finch's moving lyrics are passionate and lightly elegiac by turns They speak unabashedly about desire and the human heart but without the taints of sensationalism or sentimentality Speak however is not the right word given the delicately turned musicality of these poems the mot juste must be sing David Yezzi author of Birds of the Air Haunted burnished passion echoes through these deft and beautifully alert lyrics Margaret Rockwell Finch uses poetry's traditional means to ends that are purely her own From time's quarrels she has fashioned poems that resonate with poetry's timelessness Baron Wormser author of The Road Washes Out in Spring Like the best of the chain of passionate women poets to which she belongs Margaret Rockwell Finch is skilled in the perfectly torqued line angled to pull power straight from the personal and often the collective unconscious So many of these perfect crystals forged with feeling and dignity out of the heart of experience shine
