Listening to Silences : New Essays in Feminist Criticism Elaine Hedges Professor of English and Director of Women's Studies Towson State University, Austin Shelley Fisher Fishkin Professor of American Studies and English University of Texas, 1994-09-22

Silences Tillie Olsen, 2014-07-22 A landmark survey of disenfranchised literary voices and the forces that seek to silence them from the influential activist and author of Tell Me a Riddle With this groundbreaking work Olsen revolutionized the study of literature by shedding critical light on the writings of marginalized women and working class people From the excavated testimony of authors letters and diaries Olsen shows us the many ways the creative spirit especially in those disadvantaged by gender class or race has been suppressed through the years Olsen recounts the torments of Herman Melville the shame that brought Willa Cather to a dead halt and the struggles of Olsen's personal heroine Virginia Woolf the greatest exemplar of a writer who confronted the forces that worked to silence her First published in 1978 Silences expanded the literary canon and the ways readers engage with literature This 25th anniversary edition includes Olsen's classic reading lists of forgotten authors and a new introduction Bracing and prescient Silences remains of primary importance to those who want to understand how art is generated or subverted and to those trying to create it themselves Margaret Atwood The New York Times Book Review A valuable book an angry book a call to action Maxine Hong Kingston Silences helped me to keep my sanity many a day Gloria Naylor author of Mama Day Silences is the Bible I constantly return to it Sandra Cisneros author of The House on Mango Street Silences will like A Room of One's Own be quoted where there is talk of the circumstances in which literature is possible Adrienne Rich author of Diving into the Wreck

The Islandman Irene Lucchitti, 2009 This book concerns Tom's O Crohan of the Blasket Islands and offers a radical reinterpretation of this iconic Irish figure and his place in Gaelic literature It examines the politics of Irish culture that turned O Crohan into The Islandman and harnessed his texts to the national political project presenting him as an instinctual natural hero and a naive almost unwilling writer and his texts as artefacts of unselfconscious unmediated linguistic and ethnographic authenticity The author demonstrates that such misleading claims never properly scrutinised before this study have been to the detriment of the author's literary reputation and that they have obscured the deeply personal and highly idiosyncratic purpose and nature of his writing At the core of the book is a recognition that what O Crohan wrote was not primarily a history nor an ethnography but an autobiography The book demonstrates that the conventional reading of the texts which privileges O Crohan's fisherman identity has hidden from view the writer protagonist inscribed in the texts subordinating his identity as a writer to his identity as a peasant The author shows O Crohan to have been a literary pioneer who negotiated the journey from oral tradition into literature as well as a modern self-aware man of letters engaging deliberately and artistically with questions of mortality

A Voice from the Silence Charles Philip Nettleton, 1904

Silence in the Land of Logos Silvia Montiglio, 2010-05-17 In ancient Greece the spoken word connoted power whether in the free speech accorded to citizens or in the voice of the poet whose song was thought to know no earthly bounds But how did silence fit into the mental framework of a society that valued speech so highly Here Silvia Montiglio provides the first comprehensive investigation into silence as a distinctive and meaningful phenomenon in archaic and classical Greece Arguing that the notion of silence is not a universal given but is rather situated in a complex network of associations and values Montiglio seeks to establish general principles for understanding silence through analyses of cultural practices including religion literature and law Unlike the silence of a Christian before an ineffable God which signifies the uselessness of words silence in Greek religion paradoxically expresses the power of logos for example during prayer and sacrifice it serves as a shield against words that could offend the gods Montiglio goes on to explore silence in the world of the epic hero where words are equated with action and their absence signals paralysis or tension in power relationships Her other examples include oratory a practice in which citizens must balance their words with silence in very complex ways in order to show that they do not abuse their right to speak Inquiries into lyric poetry drama medical writings and historiography round out this unprecedented study revealing silence as a force in its own right

Inside the Expressive Culture of Chinese Women's Mosques Maria Jaschok, 2024-11-06 This book presents a multi voice narrative of the history and significance of current contestations over the increasing prominence of expressive piety in Hui Muslim women's mosques in central China By drawing on a Song Book of chants collected from the tradition of women's mosques as context it reveals just how the increasing prominence of female voices has given rise to considerable misgivings among senior religious leaders over the potential destabilization of orthodox Islamic gendered practices Providing a historical introduction to the place and function of Islamic chants jingge and zansheng the book gives a conceptual framing of female silence sound and agency in local translations of Confucian and Islamic precepts and women's personal accounts of the role played by traditional and modern soundscapes in transmitting and celebrating Islamic knowledge and faith As a study of women's soundscapes and the significance of legitimacy ambiguities and implications of female sound this book will be of considerable interest to students and scholars of Chinese society and culture gender studies cultural anthropology and Islam

The Complete Short Stories Guy de Maupassant, 1903

Postcolonial Memory in the Netherlands Gerlov Engelenhoven, 2025-10-01 This book is about postcolonial memory in the Netherlands This term refers to conflicts in contemporary society about how the colonial past should be remembered The question is often who has the right or ability to tell their stories and who do not In other words who has a voice and who is silenced As such these conflicts represent a wider tendency in cultural theory and activism to use voice as a metaphor for empowerment and silence as voice's negative counterpart signifying powerlessness And yet there are voices that do not liberate us from but rather subject us to power Meanwhile silence can be powerful it can protect disrupt and reconfigure Throughout this book it will become clear how voice and silence function not as each other's opposites but as each other's continuation and that postcolonial memory is articulated through the interplay of meaningful voices and

Listening to Silences Elaine Hedges,Shelley Fisher Fishkin,1994 Thirty years ago in a lecture at the Radcliffe Institute Tillie Olsen first addressed the problem of silences in literature paving the way for future explorations of the subject including her landmark work Silences The subject of silences and silencing as fact as trope as lens through which to understand literary history has been central to feminist criticism ever since In Listening to Silences a group of distinguished feminist literary critics reevaluates Olsen s heritage to reassert extend redefine and question her insights and to probe the dynamics of silence and silencing as they operate today in literature criticism and the academy The book traces for the first time the genealogy of an important American critical tradition one that still influences contemporary debates about feminism multiculturalism and the literary canon Forming a highly diverse group the contributors to Listening to Silences include Kate Adams Norma Alarcon Joanne Braxton King Kok Cheung Constance Coiner Robin Dizard Shelley Fisher Fishkin Diana Hume
George Elaine Hedges Carla Kaplan Patricia Laurence Rebecca Mark Diane Middlebrook Carla L Peterson Lillian Robinson Deborah Silverton Rosenfelt Judith L Sensibar Judith Bryant Wittenberg and Sharon Zuber The Appropriated Voice Bette

Sebina,Thapelo J. Otlogetswe,2004 Saying And Silence Frank Farmer,2001-03 In composition studies for the last two or three decades Bakhtin has been especially influential through his theories of language dialogue and genre His work is required reading in upper division and graduate rhetoric courses and is included in the recent major surveys if rhetoric Frank Farmer has contributed important essays to the study of Bakhtin in composition and in Saying and Silence he gathers some of those along with several new essays into a single volume Scholars who specialize in Bakhtin will find this work engaging but equally Farmer wants to explicate and apply Bakhtin for readers whose focus is teaching or some other nonspecialist dimension of writing scholarship Farmer explores the relationship between the meaningful word and the meaningful pause between saying and silence especially as the relationship emerges in our classrooms our disciplinary conversations and encounters with publics beyond the academy Each of his chapters here addresses some aspect of how we and our students colleagues and critics have our say and speak our piece often under conditions where silence is the institutionally sanctioned and preferred alternative He has enlisted a number of Bakhtinian ideas the superaddressee outsideness voice in dialogue to help in the project of interpreting the silences we hear naming the silences we do not hear and of encouraging all silences to speak in ways that are freely chosen not enforced What he offers then is a compact collection that addresses major areas of Bakhtinian thought and influence on composition practice to date And he does this in a voice and style that will be accessible to the general scholar as well as the specialist and will be suitable for use with the advanced composition student too Choreographing Voice Gina Bloom,2001 *Teaching Modern Latin American
