Absolutely American David Lipsky, 2014-12-16 Lipsky a Rolling Stone writer and an award winning novelist chronicles daily life at the U S Military Academy during the most tumultuous period in its history In 1998 West Point made David Lipsky an unprecedented offer stay at the Academy as long as you like go wherever you wish talk to whomever you want to discover why some of America's most promising young people sacrifice so much to become cadets Lipsky followed one cadet class into mess halls barracks classrooms bars and training exercises from arrival through graduation By telling their stories he also examines the Academy as a reflection of our society Are its principles of equality patriotism and honor quaint anachronisms or is it still as Theodore Roosevelt called it the most absolutely American institution During arguably the most eventful four years in West Point's history Lipsky witnesses the arrival of TVs and phones in dorm rooms the end of hazing and innumerable other shifts in policy and practice known collectively as The Changes He uncovers previously unreported scandals and poignantly evokes the aftermath of September 11 when cadets must prepare to become officers in wartime Absolutely American spotlights a remarkable ensemble of characters a former Eagle Scout who struggles with every facet of the program from classwork to marching a foul mouthed party animal who hates the military and came to West Point to play football a farm raised kid who seems to be the perfect soldier despite his affection for the early work of Georgia O'Keeffe and an exquisitely turned out female cadet who aspires to a career in hair and nails after the Army These cadets and their classmates are transformed in fascinating sometimes astonishing ways by one of America's most mythologized and least understood challenges Many of them thrive under the rigorous regimen others battle endlessly just to survive it A few give up the fight altogether Lipsky's extensive experience covering college students for Rolling Stone helped him gain an exceptional degree of trust and candor from both cadets and administrators They offer frank insights on drug use cheating romance loyalty duty patriotism and the Army's tortuous search for meaning as new threats loom

Strength and Drive Robert A. Doughty, 2014-12-18 The Class of 1965 entered the Military Academy in July 1961 As cadets they received a traditional West Point education but also studied new fields such as computers and nuclear physics Upon graduation members of the class received numerous national scholarships including one Rhodes scholarship During the Vietnam War members of the class received no less than one Medal of Honor four Distinguished Service Crosses one Air Force Cross 94 Silver Stars 5 Soldiers Medals 175 Bronze Stars with V device for valor and 129 Purple Hearts In later years members of the class served with distinction in Grenada Panama Iraq and elsewhere They became leaders in transforming the army after the Cold War into a much leaner more agile technologically advanced force Those who left the service whether after four years in uniform or more contributed to the nation in a similarly impressive manner As civilians they excelled in numerous fields and exhibited as much patriotism and Strength and Drive as those still in uniform Whether in uniform or not members of the class of 1965 served their communities and nation and never lost sight of the meaning of West Point's motto Duty Honor Country
