Club Women of New York, 1907 Men in the American Women's Rights Movement, 1830-1890 Hélène Quanquin, 2020-11-29 This book studies male activists in American feminism from the 1830s to the late 19th century using archival work on personal papers as well as public sources to demonstrate their diverse and often contradictory advocacy of women's rights as important but also cumbersome allies Focussing mainly on nine men William Lloyd Garrison Wendell Phillips James Mott Frederick Douglass Henry B Blackwell Stephen S Foster Henry Ward Beecher Robert Purvis and Thomas Wentworth Higginson the book demonstrates how their interactions influenced debates within and outside the movement marriages and friendships as well as the evolution of self definitions of masculinity throughout the 19th century Re evaluating the historical evolution of feminisms as movements for and by women as well as the meanings of identity politics before and after the Civil War this is a crucial text for the history of both American feminisms and American politics and society This is an important scholarly intervention that would be of interest to scholars in the fields of gender history women's history gender studies and modern American history

Women's Place in Pope's World Valerie Rumbold, 1989-09-29 How was Alexander Pope's personal experience of women transformed into poetry How characteristic of his age was Pope's attitude toward women What was the influence of individual women such as his mother Patty Blount and Lady Mary Montagu on his life and work Valerie Rumbold's is the first full length study to address these issues Referring to previously unexploited manuscripts she focuses both on Pope's own life and art and on early eighteenth century assumptions about women and gender She offers readings of some of the well known poems in which women feature prominently and follows Pope's response throughout his writings in general The poet's own alienation from the dominant culture through religion politics and physical handicap and his troubled fascination with certain kinds of women make this subject complex and compelling with wide implications Dr Rumbold provides new insight and shows how women with whom Pope dealt can themselves be seen as individuals with presence and dignity
