Western Theology:

Western Theological Seminary Western Theological Seminary (Evanston, Ill.),1929      Indigenous Theology and the Western Worldview (Acadia Studies in Bible and Theology) Randy S. Woodley,2022-04-19 This volume by a Cherokee teacher former pastor missiologist and historian brings Indigenous theology into conversation with Western approaches to history and theology Written in an accessible conversational style that incorporates numerous stories and questions this book exposes the weaknesses of a Western worldview through a personal engagement with Indigenous theology Randy Woodley critiques the worldview that undergirds the North American church by dismantling assumptions regarding early North American histories and civilizations offering a comparative analysis of worldviews and demonstrating a decolonized approach to Christian theology Woodley explains that Western theology has settled for a particular view of God and has perpetuated that basic view for hundreds of years but Indigenous theology originates from a completely different DNA Instead of beginning with God created humanity it begins with God created place Instead of emphasizing individualism it emphasizes a corporateness that encompasses the whole community of creation And instead of being about the next world it is about the tangibility of our lived experiences in this present world The book encourages readers to reject the many problematic aspects of the Western worldview and to convert to a worldview that is closer to that of both Indigenous traditions and Jesus

Waiting and Being Joshua B. Davis,2013-10-01 The problem of creation and grace has a long history of contention within Protestant and Catholic theology involving not only internecine conflict within the traditions but fueling as well ecumenical debates that have continued a dogmatic divide This volume traces out that conflict in modern Catholic and Protestant dogmatics and provides a historical genealogy that situates the origin of the problem within different emphases in the thought of St Augustine

The Perception of Christianity as a Rational Religion in Singapore Clive S. Chin,2017-03-23 This book evaluates the common criticism that Christianity in Asia is westernized Since the 1980s Asian evangelical theologians and missiologists argue that the intrusion of Western theology is responsible for the Western and hence alien expressions of Christianity in Asia Yet in Singapore the number of Christians has increased over the last few decades Empirical evidence demonstrates that younger Chinese Singaporeans convert from Buddhism or Taoism to Christianity partly because they perceive it as a rational religion over Buddhism or Taoism which are viewed as irrational or superstitious Not only do many converts favor Christianity as a rational religion but they do not regard Christianity as a Western religion at the point of their conversion What accounts for those recent developments This study explores the processes of modernization and globalization as important factors impacting religious change in Singapore Personal contextual and structural elements actually influence one's religion of choice In facilitating effective mission one must qualify the use of the categories Asian and Western because religious and cultural boundaries overlap What matters most in missiology is discerning how the gospel of Jesus Christ engages the self understanding and lived realities of ethnic and religious others in diverse cultural settings
