Who Is Coming:

Who Is This Who Is Coming? (p) Robert Laynton, 2017-03-15 Christianity and Judaism differ concerning the Messiah the one chosen and set apart by God to be the deliverer of God's people yet both are looking forward in time to the coming of the Messiah So who is it that is coming and what will be the impact of this event Is there any hope of reconciling such divergent viewpoints This study suggests that there is more commonality between Jewish and Christian perspectives than may first appear By drawing primarily from the Hebrew Scriptures and the Christian New Testament Scriptures it traces the unfolding story of God's plan of redemption reconciliation and restoration of the world to Himself through His chosen nation the Children of Israel and the promised Messiah It is an epic narrative of a kingdom usurped and being regained and one that is both uplifting and full of hope but at the same time sobering raising concerns for all of us at this present time The Time is Coming W.
