The Creedal Imperative Carl R. Trueman, 2012-09-30 Recent years have seen a number of high profile scholars converting to Roman Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy while a trend in the laity expresses an eclectic hunger for tradition The status and role of confessions stands at the center of the debate within evangelicalism today as many resonate with the call to return to Christianity s ancient roots Carl Trueman offers an analysis of why creeds and confessions are necessary how they have developed over time and how they can function in the church of today and tomorrow He writes primarily for evangelicals who are not particularly confessional in their thinking yet who belong to confessional churches Baptists independents etc so that they will see more clearly the usefulness of the church s tradition

Grounded in the Gospel J. I. Packer, Gary A. Parrett, 2010-04-01 Historically the church s ministry of grounding new believers in the essentials of the faith has been known as catechesis systematic instruction in faith foundations including what we believe how we pray and worship and how we conduct our lives For most evangelicals today however this very idea is an alien concept Packer and Parrett concerned for the state of the church seek to inspire a much needed evangelical course correction This new book makes the case for a recovery of significant catechesis as a nonnegotiable practice of churches showing the practice to be complementary to and of no less value than Bible study expository preaching and other formational ministries and urging evangelical churches to find room for this biblical ministry for the sake of their spiritual health and vitality

Crisis of Confidence Carl R. Trueman, 2024-01-23 Carl Trueman Analyzes How Ancient Creeds and Confessions Protect Biblical Christianity in a Culture of Expressive Individualism Historic statements of faith such as the Heidelberg Catechism the Apostles Creed and the Westminster Confession of Faith have helped the Christian church recite and hold fast to God s truth for centuries However many modern evangelicals reject these historic documents and the practices of catechesis proclaiming their commitment to no creed but the Bible And yet in today s rapidly changing culture ancient liturgical tradition is not only biblical it s essential In Crisis of Confidence Carl Trueman analyzes how creeds and confessions can help the Christian church navigate modern concerns particularly around the fraught issue of identity He contends that statements of faith promote humility moral structure and a godly view of personhood helping believers maintain a strong foundation amid a culture in crisis This is a revised edition of Trueman's The Creedal Imperative now with a new section on the rise of expressive individualism Updated Edition of The Creedal Imperative Includes fresh cultural insights on modern individualism Written by Carl Trueman Author of The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self 100 000 copies sold Theological and Historical Explains why creeds and confessions are necessary how they have developed over time and how they can function in the church of today and tomorrow Ideal for Pastors Professors and Those Interested in Liturgical Tradition Replaces ISBN 978 1 4335 2190 4

Bayes, 2010-09-09 Throughout the centuries churches all over the world have confessed their faith in the words of The Apostle's Creed The Creed is a brilliant summary of the essence of biblical truth But as this book shows the Creed is not just a dry statement of abstract doctrines It is an expression of passion As they composed the Creed

the earliest Christians were giving voice to their passion for the God who has made himself known in the person of Jesus Christ The Creed stands as an invitation to believers of every generation to that same passionate commitment which has marked our predecessors in the faith This book expounds the Creed phrase by phrase and seeks at every point to apply its teaching to the life of believers in the world of today Taking the Creed as his starting point and framework Jonathan Bayes presents a wide ranging account of Christian theology His reflections on the Creed lead to some challenging and stimulating meditations on various aspects of biblical teaching Minutes Presbyterian Church in the U.S. General Assembly,1907
