Coworking Spaces Latest:

Coworking Spaces Janet Merkel, Dimitris Pettas, Vasilis Avdikos, 2023-11-07 This contributed volume considers the emergence of coworking as centered in labor issues. More specifically its chapters consider it as a coping mechanism in the worldwide rise of independent modes of work i.e. self employment that leaves more and more workers exposed to precarity as they must organize and manage their own labor. Grounded in this perspective this volume aims to understand the transformative social and political potentials emerging through coworking as a social and spatial practice. There is a distinct lack of discussion within coworking research on the emancipatory potentials of coworking and if it is discussed more cautionary views prevail highlighting the ambivalence of coworking spaces both as a space of alternative economic practices and as integrated into market economies. The aims of this collection are twofold. First it aims to make visible the plurality of existing practices around shared resources in coworking and the assemblages of human and non human actors as agents of change associated with coworking and the re organization of work and labor power. And second it aims to develop a more emancipatory narrative for coworking and the role of coworking spaces for workers but also the different spatial contexts in which these spaces are situated. A narrative that does not emphasize entrepreneurship or coworking as the epitome of the neoliberal entrepreneurial self as in the dominant interpretations in the current research but rather one that centers coworking in the creation of meaningful careful social relationships supporting empathy and an ethics that recognizes mutual interdependencies and builds a foundation for social change. So it is about alternative narratives emancipation politics and the wider social role that coworking spaces might play in neighborhoods cities or beyond because they are crucial contexts for the formation and maintenance of social relations. With this specific direction this collection aims to bring coworking research into a fruitful dialog with other research fields such as sociology of work feminist perspectives on care alternative and diverse economies post capitalist transformation critical geography positioning coworking within a range of progressive alternatives in the articulation of economic and social relationships.

Evolution of New Working Spaces Ilaria Mariotti, Elisabete Tomaz, Grzegorz Micek, Carles Méndez-Ortega, 2024-02-27 This open access book provides multidisciplinary perspectives on the changing dynamics of new working spaces with insights from various European countries and observing critical theoretical approaches. Divided into two main parts the first part focuses on the different typologies of new working spaces identifying the changing nature of these spaces and associated concepts taxonomies and specific approaches to this phenomenon. The second part analyzes the location of new working spaces examining its recent evolution and identifying new factors and geographies offering an additional empirical analysis of different European realities. The research included in this book contributes to the current discussion of new forms and geographies of work and their impact on the territories and related policies.

He is also co-founder of The Revolution Institute, a global nonprofit that promotes social good. Ja-Nae Duane is a speaker, strategist, social scientist, artist, creative economist, and author of How to Start Your Business with 100. The Lost Art of Connecting: The Gather, Ask, Do Method for Building Meaningful Business Relationships Susan McPherson, 2021-03-23. Named a Best Business Book of 2021 by Soundview Magazine, Reclaim the Power of Genuine Human Connection. Networking is often considered a necessary evil for all working professionals. With social media platforms like LinkedIn, Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook at our disposal, reaching potential investors or employers is much easier. Yet these connections often feel transactional, agenda-driven, and dehumanizing, leaving professionals feeling burnt out and stressed out. Instead, we should connect on a human level and build authentic relationships beyond securing a new job or a new investor for your next big idea. To build real and meaningful networking contacts, we need to go back to basics, remembering that technology is a tool and more than just a means to an end. We need to tap into our humanity and learn to be more intentional and authentic. As a serial connector and communications expert, Susan McPherson has a lifetime of experience building genuine connections in and out of work. Her methodology is broken down into three simple steps: Gather. Instead of waiting for the perfect networking opportunity to come to you, think outside the box and create your own opportunity. Host your own dinner party, join a local meet-up group, or volunteer at your neighborhood food pantry. Ask. Instead of leading with our own rehearsed elevator pitches, asking for help, ask to help, opening the door to share resources, experience, contacts, and perspectives that add diversity to your own vision. Do. Turn new connections into meaningful relationships by taking these newly formed relationships deeper. Follow through on the promises you made and keep in touch. Woven together with helpful tips and useful advice on making the most out of every step, this book draws on McPherson's own experience as a renowned serial connector, as well as the real-life success stories of friends and clients. Filled with humor, humility, and wisdom, The Lost Art of

Connecting is the handbook we all need to foster personal and professional relationships that blur the lines between work and play and enrich our lives in every way

The Best Part of Prison Jesse Crosson,2026-03-10 An unvarnished deeply human account of one man s time in prison and his unexpected journey to healing accountability transformation and redemption At 18 Jesse Crosson was considered a lost cause Strung out on drugs he committed a robbery and later a nonfatal shooting For those choices he was sentenced to 32 years nearly twice as long as the maximum recommended by sentencing guidelines No one expected his story to end well But for Jesse prison was not the end It became the beginning of a long path toward redemption In The Best Part of Prison Jesse reveals how a system meant to rehabilitate so often alienates and destroys describing both the daily brutality of incarceration and the added cruelty of surviving the COVID 19 pandemic behind bars Across four prisons shoulder to shoulder with people convicted of every imaginable crime Jesse anticipated only the worst Instead he discovered teachers friends trauma survivors striving to heal victims seeking repair and even hardened lifers who became unlikely mentors Within that crucible he confronted what it means to cause harm to make amends and to rediscover humanity Now a pardoned advocate for criminal justice reform and the founder of the Second Chancer Foundation Jesse shares a story that exposes the inequity of today s justice system champions rehabilitation and restorative justice and demonstrates the redemptive power of accountability education and human connection Electric and deeply felt from the slam of a cell door to the awe of seeing the night sky after 19 years The Best Part of Prison reminds us that second chances are always possible and that none of us are defined solely by our worst moments

Organization theory. Increasing volunteer motivation in third-sector organizations Fabian Hernandez,2020-06-25 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz language English abstract How can one categorize organizations like the Gutenberg Digital Hub GDH What can help those organizations to motivate their volunteers This thesis presents insights into the current state of organization theory and how specific new forms of organizations in Germany can be classified with it Thereafter it links this classification to motivation theory and shows the connection from Vroom s expectancy theory to the field of volunteer motivation Furthermore this thesis wants to empower GDH like organizations to grasp which methods or techniques can be applied in real world situations

Therefore a dual approach combines a literature review and a case study These two offer more detailed hints to increase volunteer motivation in such organizations For instance promising options are addressing needs of the potential volunteers enabling autonomy or demonstrating the motive of the organization An understanding of volunteer motivation in general and advice for recruiting processes are displayed as well This thesis delivers a classification of this unique type of organization and an overview of motivation theory in the volunteer context thereby providing both academic and practical value
