The Screen Chills Companion, 1940-1946 Chris Fellner, 2025-10-10 The second in a two volume set this book presents horror fans with a treasure trove of information on every Hollywood horror movie produced during the second wave of screen scares 1940-1946 Entries on 113 films provide detailed production histories derived from trade publication reports contemporary press hype casts scenarios critiques and behind the scenes production tidbits Postscripts detailing noteworthy events that followed a picture's theatrical run such as sequels or award nominations also are featured An appendix presents the first accurate detailed history of the infamous lost chiller from New York Dr Terror's House of Horrors 1945 Profusely illustrated and painstakingly documented this complete history of the second decade of Hollywood horror is essential reading for horror fans and cinema historians alike

Horror Noir Paul Meehan, 2014-01-10 This critical survey examines the historical and thematic relationships between two of the cinema's most popular genres horror and film noir The influence of 1930s and 1940s era horror films on the development of noir is detailed with analyses of more than 100 motion pictures in which noir criminality and mystery meld with supernatural and psychological horror Included are the films based on popular horror mystery radio shows The Whistler Inner Sanctum the works of RKO producer Val Lewton Cat People The Seventh Victim and Alfred Hitchcock's psychological ghost stories Also discussed are gothic and costume horror noirs set in the 19th century The Picture of Dorian Gray Hangover Square the noir elements of more recent films and the film noir aspects of the Hannibal Lecter movies and other serial killer thrillers

Stroheim Arthur Lennig, 2000-01-27 Erich von Stroheim 1885-1957 was one of the giants in American film history Stubborn arrogant and colorful he saw himself as a cinema artist which led to conflicts with producers and studio executives who complained about the inflated budgets and extraordinary length of his films Stroheim achieved great notoriety and success but he was so uncompromising that he turned his triumph into failure He was banned from ever directing again and spent his remaining years as an actor Stroheim's life has been wreathed in myths many of his own devising Arthur Lennig scoured European and American archives for details concerning the life of the actor and director and he counters several long accepted claims Stroheim's tales of military experience are almost completely fictitious the von in his name was an affectation adopted at Ellis Island in 1909 and counter to his own claim he did not participate in the production of The Birth of a Nation in 1914 Wherever Stroheim lived he was an outsider a Jew in Vienna an Austrian in southern California an American in France This contributed to an almost pathological need to embellish and obscure his past yet it also may have been the key to his genius both behind and in front of the camera As an actor Stroheim threw himself into his portrayals of evil men relishing his epithet The Man You Love to Hate As a director he immersed himself in every facet of production including script writing and costume design In 1923 he created his masterpiece Greed infamous for its eight hour running time Stroheim returned to acting saving some of his finest performances for La Grande Illusion 1937 and Billy Wilder's Sunset Boulevard 1950 a role he hated probably because it was too similar to the story of his own life      Psychotherapists on Film, 1899-1999 John Flowers, Paul Frizler, 2004 How long have psychotherapists been depicted in films Nearly as long as there have been films or psychotherapists for that matter This isn't surprising if one considers that the Freudian revolution in psychology and the invention of motion pictures occurred at about the same time What may be surprising is the sheer number of times that psychotherapists in their many guises have shown up in the movies and how their depiction has reflected changing social attitudes about psychotherapy over the last century This comprehensive worldwide filmography examines over 5000 movies Films in which mental health professionals appear or in which others act in that capacity are listed alphabetically A preface explains the criteria for a film's inclusion and a lengthy introduction and guide to the filmography explores the changing social attitudes mirrored by the movies Appendices list the titles by decade alternate titles for many films recent releases and qualifying adult films This text refers to Volume 2 of a two volume set Volume 2 includes entries from M through Z the appendices and index The complete set can be obtained under ISBN 0 7864 1297 6      Poverty Row Horrors! Tom Weaver, 1993 Poverty row horror films were usually inexpensively some would say cheaply produced with writing that ranged from bad to atrocious Yet these movies with their all star horror casts Carradine Lugosi Karloff et al and their ape men mad monsters devil bats and white zombies still have a loyal audience 50 years after their release Essays contain full filmographic data on the 31 horror chillers made by the three studios from 1940 through 1946 and are arranged by year of release Each entry includes the date of release length production credits cast credits interview quotes and a plot synopsis with critical commentary Filmographies for prominent horror actors and actresses from John Abbott to George Zucco are provided in the appendices      Quinlan's Film Directors David Quinlan, 1999 The enthusiast's essential handy reference to who directed what with each entry providing a concise summary of the director's career      Films in Review, 1980      Art Directors in Cinema Michael L. Stephens, 1998 Often forgotten among the actors directors producers and others associated with filmmaking art directors are responsible for making movies visually appealing to audiences As such they sometimes make the difference between a hit and a bomb This biographical dictionary includes not only the world's great and almost great artists but the unjustly neglected film designers of the past and present Among the more than 300 art directors and designers are pioneers from silent films designers from Hollywood and Europe's Golden Ages Asian figures post Golden Age personalities leaders of the European and American New Waves and many contemporary designers Each entry consists of biographical information an analysis of the director's career and important films and an extensive filmography including mentions of Academy Award nominations and winners      TV Guide, 1988-02-05      The Conjurors' Magazine, 1945      The Linking Ring, 1958      Academy Players Directory Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, 1937      From Silents to Sound Roy Liebman, 1998 Garbo talked Gilbert self destructed and Chaplin refused that's about all many people know about silent film actors who faced the transition into talking pictures Yes Greta Garbo's talkie debut was successful John Gilbert's was disastrous and Charlie Chaplin did not deign to make one for over a decade But there were many others both stars and lesser lights who also made the leap for at least one talking film From Renee Adoree to Loretta Young over 500 actors and actresses who made at least three silent films and had some starring or supporting roles in sound films are included in this reference work For each performer the place of birth vital dates nicknames if any real name if different from stage name and a source for filmographic data are included This information is followed by capsule accounts of the performer s silent and sound careers along with contemporary reviews of selected talkies in which they appeared
