The Meaning Of Fiction:

Truth in Fiction John Woods,2018-02-23 This monograph examines truth in fiction by applying the techniques of a naturalized logic of human cognitive practices The author structures his project around two focal questions What would it take to write a book about truth in literary discourse with reasonable promise of getting it right What would it take to write a book about truth in fiction as true to the facts of lived literary experience as objectivity allows It is argued that the most semantically distinctive feature of the sentences of fiction is that they are unambiguously true and false together It is true that Sherlock Holmes lived at 221B Baker Street and also concurrently false that he did A second distinctive feature of fiction is that the reader at large knows of this inconsistency and isn't in the least cognitively molested by it Why it is asked would this be so What would explain it Two answers are developed According to the no contradiction thesis the semantically tangled sentences of fiction are indeed logically inconsistent but not logically contradictory According to the no bother thesis if the inconsistencies of fiction were contradictory a properly contrived logic for the rational management of inconsistency would explain why readers at large are not thrown off cognitive stride by their embrace of those contradictions As developed here the account of fiction suggests the presence of an underlying three or four valued dialethic logic The author shows this to be a mistaken impression There are only two truth values in his logic of fiction The naturalized logic of Truth in Fiction jettisons some of the standard assumptions and analytical tools of contemporary philosophy chiefly because the neurotypical linguistic and cognitive behaviour of humanity at large is at variance with them Using the resources of a causal response epistemology in tandem with the naturalized logic the theory produced here is data driven empirically sensitive and open to a circumspect collaboration with the empirical sciences of language and cognition The Meaning of Fiction Albert Stanburrough Cook, The Meaning of Fiction Albert Spaulding Cook,2012-05-05 The Choice Of A Novelist's Style Plot Character And Theme Are Discussed And Many Famous Novels Are Reinterpreted Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure ,1905 The Theory of Characterization in Prose Fiction Prior to 1740 Arthur Jerrold Tieje,1916 Art, Literature, and Passions of the Skies Anna Teresa Tymieniecka,2012-06-30 Flashes of lightning resounding thunder gloomy fog brilliant sunshine these are the life manifestations of the skies The concrete visceral experiences that living under those skies stir within us are the ground for individual impulses emotions sentiments that in their interaction generate their own ever changing clouds While our intellect concentrates on the discovery of our cosmic position on the architecture of the universe our imagination is informed by the gloomy vapors the glimmers of fleeting light and the glory of the skies Reconnoitering from the soil of human life and striving towards the infinite the elan of imagination gets caught up in the clouds of the skies There in that dimness sensory receptivity dispositions emotions passionate strivings yearnings elevations gather and propagate From the Passions of the Skies spring innermost intuitions that nourish literature and the arts Legal Fictions in Private Law Liron Shmilovits,2022-01-06 Legal fictions are falsehoods that the law knowingly relies on It is the most
