The Metternich Controversy:

The Metternich Controversy Enno E. Kraehe, 1971 Palmerston and Metternich's Austria, 1830–1841 Jiří Vyčichlo, 2025-03-03 This book aims to analyze the international policies of Viscount Palmerston and Prince Metternich during the years 1830–1841. The focus of this work is on the pivotal role of British diplomacy in Europe during a period marked by the outbreak of the July Revolution, the dissolution of the United Kingdom of the Netherlands, the November Uprising, significant events in the German Confederation and the Papal States, as well as the civil wars in Portugal and Spain and the two Egyptian-Ottoman wars. The clash between Palmerston and Metternich stands out. Both men were at the forefront of European foreign relations and were symbols of two different political currents. This work aims to challenge the traditional view of Palmerston as a progressive statesman who defended the freedom of European liberalism and Metternich as a reactionary who opposed social modernization. The text highlights the motives behind British foreign policy, which were centred on promoting national interests, often at the expense of cooperation among the Great Powers, in contrast to the Austrian Chancellor's efforts to foster the best possible relations within the Concert of Europe.

The Origins of Revisionist and Status-Quo States J. Davidson, 2016-04-30 Explaining why some states seek the status quo and others seek revision in international relations, Davidson argues that governments pursuing revisionist policies are responding to powerful domestic groups such as nationalists and those in the military that believe they can defeat their rivals. He draws on examples of France, Italy, and Great Britain to enhance understanding of a fundamental source of instability in international affairs.

Events That Formed the Modern World Frank W. Thackeray, John E. Findling, 2012-05-31 This comprehensive five-volume set contains readable essays that describe and interpret the most important global events since the European Renaissance, some accompanied by related document excerpts and primary source materials. What were the effects of the Age of Exploration on today's ethnic groups and social structure? How did the development of moveable type pave the way for Facebook and Twitter? Why is the Reformation so critical for understanding today's religious controversies? This set will help readers answer these questions by exploring the most significant historical events of the modern world. This five-volume set covers times from the Renaissance to the present. Each volume focuses on a specific historic period and examines 12 events within those time frames that changed the world. Each entry provides an introduction that lays out factual material in a chronological manner, an in-depth essay interpreting the event's significance, and an annotated bibliography of the most important current works on the topic. Select entries are followed by primary sources pertaining to the event under consideration, such as diary entries. Targeted to both general readers as well as entry-level university students, this book also directly supports high school and undergraduate curricula, allowing students to identify and contextualize events in order to think critically about their causes, aftermath, and legacy.

The War for the Public Mind Robert J. Goldstein, 2000-03-30 From 1815 to 1914, European governments and their political oppositions were engaged in a constant war for the minds of the general population especially the working classes The German socialist newspaper Hamburger Echo declared on September 27 1910 In waging our war we do not throw bombs Instead we throw our newspapers amongst the masses of the working people Printing ink is our explosive The most comprehensive study ever published about European censorship practices during the 1815 1914 period this book discusses the censorship of books newspapers caricatures theater and film through an analytical introductory survey and six chapters by leading specialists who summarize 19th century censorship practices in the six major countries of continental Europe Germany Italy France Austria Russia and Spain As a result of the massive transformation of European life in the post Napoleonic period and the simultaneously rapid growth in industrialization urbanization literacy transportation and communication the average European emerged quite suddenly as a potential player who could no longer be ignored by the ruling elite

Statesmen Who Changed the World Frank W. Thackeray, John E. Findling, 1993-04-26 Statesmen Who Changed the World provides extensive essays on more than 70 statesmen of the Western world covering the time period from the 15th century to the present Some of the statesmen included were heads of state others held ministerial positions in foreign affairs a few were neither heads of state nor foreign ministers All influenced or changed the world in which they lived Each essay includes a thorough and insightful biographical sketch covering the subject's life and career with particular emphasis on the subject's involvement in international affairs In addition each essay provides a bibliographical essay describing the available archival materials works written by and about the subject and the most recent scholarship It concludes with a bibliographical checklist Appendixes include glossaries of terms and a listing of heads of state The book is fully indexed

Europe on the Path to Self-Destruction Jack L. Schwartzwald, 2022-07-19 Between the years 1815 and 1945 Europe achieved unrivaled global dominance only to see it shattered by two world wars This frenetic rise and fall was attended by immense societal change In 1815 Europe remained largely agricultural and dependent upon horsepower By 1945 the power of the atom had been unleashed Two industrial revolutions occurred in the interim the first founded upon coal iron and steam the second upon oil steel electricity and internal combustion The implications for humanity were profound This concise yet comprehensive study is divided into three sections In section one the map of Europe emerges in its modern visage as unrestrained nationalist fervor gives rise to an assemblage of new nation states In section two the continent attains global hegemony as massive industrialization fuels a mad scramble for colonial markets and raw materials In section three a cauldron of national ethnic and class hatreds spawn the rise of totalitarianism and the overthrow of European hegemony in two calamitous world wars By tracing the events and undercurrents of this vital period in European history this book offers trenchant insights for the lay reader and the student of history alike

Hapsburg Monarchy Among the Great Powers, 1815-1918 F. R. Bridge, 1990-12-07 Written by a well known specialist this study on the Austro Hungarian Empire is based on a wide variety of material from Austrian British French and German archives and takes into account recent work by other historians of the subject particularly the latest Austrian studies

It is supplemented by useful maps and translations of key diplomatic documents of the period Notes and Queries, 1905
Women of the Second Empire: Chronicles of the Court of Napoleon III Frédéric Auguste Lobée, 1907 Events That Changed the World in the Nineteenth Century Frank W. Thackeray, 1996-08-30 The revolutions around the globe in the 19th century have had an enormous impact on the course of history To help students better understand the major developments in the tumultuous 19th century and their impact on the 20th century this unique resource offers detailed description and expert analysis of the 19th century's most important events The Napoleonic Era the Congress of Vienna and the Age of Metternich the Latin American Wars of Independence the Reform Bill of 1832 the Revolutions of 1848 the Emancipation of the Russian Serfs the Meiji Restoration the Unification of Germany Marxism and the Rise of Socialism and Imperialism Each of the ten events is dealt with in a separate chapter Designed for students the unique format features an introductory essay that presents the facts followed by an interpretive essay that places the event in a broader context and promotes student analysis The introductory essay provides factual material about the event in a clear concise chronological manner that makes complex history understandable The interpretive essay written by a recognized authority in the field in a style designed to appeal to a general readership explores the short term and far reaching ramifications of the event An annotated bibliography identifies the most important and recent scholarship about each event A full page photo of each event complements the narrative This volume contains four useful appendices a glossary of names events and terms a timeline of important events in 19th century world history the comparative population of selected countries in the 19th century and countries colonized during the Imperial Scramble of 1870-1914 This work is an ideal addition to the high school community college and undergraduate reference shelf as well as excellent for supplementary reading in social studies and world history courses Homer's History Carol G. Thomas, 1977 The Barbarian Invasions Katherine Fischer Drew, 1977 Presents contrasting arguments about the role of the barbarian invasions in the decline of Rome and in the development of a new European civilization

The Black Death: a Turning Point in History? William M. Bowsky, 1971 The Writers Directory, 2004 The Impact of the Norman Conquest Charles Warren Hollister, 1982 Since the Norman Conquest wrought a transformation in the personnel of the English aristocracy this book lays particular stress on changes or continuities in feudal organization aristocratic land holding and military institutions The question of evolution versus revolution in these areas has given rise to an intense historical controversy Did the Normans transform England or was their coming merely an episode in the development of British traditions Contemporary and modern appraisals of the period are presented in this text Research Guide to European Historical Biography, 1450-present: Koh-Pet James A. Moncure, 1992 The Clique, 1981 The English Historical Review Mandell Creighton, Justin Winsor, Samuel Rawson Gardiner, Reginald Lane Poole, Sir John Goronwy Edwards, 1930 Philippine Studies, 1972
