Vittert,2025-09-30 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER In a world quick to label judge and box in people one father and son stood firm and refused to be defined by an autism diagnosis If you re channel surfing and happen upon Leland Vittert during his nightly national cable show on NewsNation he comes off as a poised journalist prying nuggets from guests If you watched him for years as an anchor at Fox News Channel you saw him on the battlefields of the Middle East the anchor desk and the White House North Lawn No one including friends and co workers has ever known his full life story and how miraculous it was to get to that point Leland was a socially awkward boy who didn t speak for years and when he finally did teachers and leaders declared him weird His unique behavior and inability to connect with his peers made him a frequent target for bullying and exclusion In one particularly harsh moment a school principal bluntly told his parents The people here think Leland is pretty weird I guess I do too Those words felt like being shot with an arrow as his parents sat in stunned silence grappling with their own fears and uncertainties for their son s future From a young age Leland showed signs of being Autistic a term rarely used at the time struggling with social cues communication and behavioral norms that came naturally to other kids The diagnosis didn t deter his father Mark He knew the world wouldn t change for Leland so he quit his job and began changing Leland for the world He became a full time parent coach training Leland and teaching him the skills he needed to navigate in society Simple concepts like eye contact understanding humor and instilling motivations had to be taught painstakingly From hundreds of pushups at age 7 to toughen him against bullies to coaching him through complex social interactions Mark s relentless dedication changed the trajectory of Leland s life Born Lucky offers an intimate look into their inspiring journey Leland lays bare his experiences of the crushing bullying during middle and high school the sting of rejection continuing into college and his ultimate transformation into an esteemed journalist But above all this book is a love letter from a grateful son who despite his diagnosis trusted his father and defied all odds It offers hope to every parent and every child who is grappling with their own unique challenges to be inspired to break labels tear down the walls that society builds and create a better future
