Truth, Freedom, and Evil: three philosophical dialogues ... Edited and translated by Jasper Hopkins & Herbert Richardson Saint Anselm (Archbishop of Canterbury),Jasper Hopkins,Herbert Warren Richardson,1967 Three Philosophical Dialogues Saint Anselm,Thomas Williams,2002-01-01 In these three dialogues renowned for their dialectical structure and linguistic precision Anselm sets out his classic account of the relationship between freedom and sin its linchpin his definition of freedom of choice as the power to preserve rectitude of will for its own sake In doing so Anselm explores the fascinating implications for God human beings and angels good and bad of his conclusion that freedom of choice neither is nor entails the power to sin In addition to an Introduction notes and a glossary Thomas Williams brings to the translation of these important dialogues the same precision and clarity that distinguish his previous translation of Anselm s Proslogion and Monologion which Professor Paul Spade of Indiana University called scrupulously faithful and accurate without being slavishly literal yet lively and graceful to both the eye and ear Foundation and Restoration in Hugh Of St. Victor's De Sacramentis P. Dillard,2014-03-20 Taking Hugh of St Victor s On the Sacraments of the Christian Faith as his source text Dillard applies the methods of analytic philosophy to develop a systematic theology in the spirit of Christian Platonism exploring questions that remain pressing for readers interested in philosophy theology religion and the history of medieval thought A Companion to Medieval Christian Humanism John P. Bequette,2016-04-08 A Companion to Medieval Christian Humanism explores the perennial questions of Christian humanism as these emerge in the writings of key medieval thinkers questions pertaining to the dignity of the human person the human person s place in the cosmos and the moral and educational ideals involved in shaping human persons toward the full realization of their dignity The contributors explore what form these questions take for medieval thinkers and how they answer these questions thereby revealing the depth of medieval Christian humanism Contributors are C Colt Anderson David Appleby John P Bequette Benjamin Brown Richard H Bulzacchelli Nancy Enright David P Fleischacker Justin Jackson Ian Levy J Stephen Russell Aage Rydstr m Poulsen Andrew Salzman John T Slotemaker Benjamin Smith and Eileen C Sweeney Anselm on Freedom Katherin Rogers,2008-06-19 Can human beings be free and responsible if there is a God Anselm of Canterbury the first Christian philosopher to propose that human beings have a really robust free will offers viable answers to questions which have plagued religious people for at least two thousand years If divine grace cannot be merited and is necessary to save fallen humanity how can there be any decisive role for individual free choice to play If God knows today what you are going to choose tomorrow then when tomorrow comes you have to choose what God foreknew so how can your choice be free If human beings must have the option to choose between good and evil in order to be morally responsible must God be able to choose evil Anselm answers these questions with a sophisticated theory of free will which defends both human freedom and the sovereignty and goodness of God
