Fruits of the Cross Robert L. Kendrick, 2018-11-27 In this first detailed study of seventeenth century sepolcri sacred operas written for court performance on Holy Thursday and Good Friday Robert L Kendrick delves into the political and artistic world of Habsburg Vienna in which music and ritual combined on the stage to produce a thoroughly original art form based on devotion to Christ's Tomb Through the use of allegorical characters the musical dramas ranged from the devotionally intense to the theologically complex to the ugly anti Jewish but played a unique role in making Passion piety relevant to wider cultural concerns Fruits of the Cross suggests that understanding the sepolcri has implications for the theatricalization of devotion the power of allegory the role of queenship in court ideology the interplay between visuality and music and not least the intellectual centrality of music theater to court self understanding

The Louder Song Aubrey Sampson, 2019-02-05 Lament helps us hear God's louder song When you're in the midst of suffering you want answers for the unanswerable resolutions to the unresolvable You want to tie up pain in a pretty little package and hide it under the bed taking it out only when you feel strong enough to face it But grief won't be contained Grief disobeys Grief explodes In one breath you may be able to say that God's got this and all will be well In the next you might descend into fatalism No pretending Here you are raw before God an open wound There is a pathway through this suffering It's not easy but God will use it to lead you toward healing This path is called lament Lament leads us between the Already and the Not Yet Lament minds the gap between current hopelessness and coming hope Lament anticipates new creation but also acknowledges the painful reality of now Lament recognizes the existence of evil and suffering without any sugarcoating while simultaneously declaring that suffering will not have the final say In the midst of your darkest times you will discover that lament leads you back to a place of hope not because lamenting does anything magical but because God sings a louder song than suffering ever could a song of renewal and restoration
