Apocrypha and Apocalyptic Literature Jan Age Sigvartsen,2019-09-19 Jan A Sigvartsen seeks to examine the immense interest in life after death and speculation about the fates awaiting both the righteous and the wicked that proliferated in the Second Temple period In this volume Sigvartsen explores the Apocrypha and the apocalyptic writings in the Pseudepigrapha He identifies the numerous afterlife and resurrection beliefs and presents an analysis that enables readers to easily understand and compare the wide ranging beliefs regarding the afterlife that these texts hold A careful reading of these resurrection passages including passages appearing in Sirach Maccabees the Sibylline Oracles and the Ezra texts reveals that most of the distinct views on life after death regardless of their complexity show little evidence of systematic development relational to one another and are often supported by several key passages or shared motifs from texts that later became a part of the TaNaKh Sigvartsen also highlights the factors that may have influenced the development of so many different resurrection beliefs including anthropology the nature of the soul the scope of the resurrection the number and function of judgments and the final destination of the righteous and the wicked Sigvartsen s study provides a deeper understanding of how the TaNaKh was read by different communities during this important period and the role it played in the development of the resurrection belief a central article of faith in both Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism The International Journal of Apocrypha ,1909 An Introduction to the Bible J.
