Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy such a hypothetical medium of expression it is uniquely suited to philosophical experimentation Indeed because literature invokes imagined or remembered experience it functions as a laboratory in which ideas may be tested against experience Literature's formal qualities which allow for statement and counter statement move and counter move make it a highly sophisticated mode of discourse in which to test out ideas Concepts can be played against each other and genre conventions may be adhered to or subverted in order to create multiple layers of signification The papers presented are published here in this special issue of Publications of the English Goethe Society and take account of German or European poetry drama or prose literature from 1750 to the present day

Bd. Mannesalter Gertrud Storm,1912 Between National Fantasies and Regional Realities Arne Koch,2006 Despite its popularity during the nineteenth century regional literature has often been overlooked with regard to its role in the development of German national consciousness By exploring various illustrations of geographic historical landscapes in texts written before the 1848 revolutions and after the 1871 unification this book investigates the vital polyphony generated by unique regional voices throughout the age of nationalism Close readings of texts by Berthold Auerbach Theodor Storm Wilhelm Raabe Fritz Reuter Theodor Fontane Gottfried Keller and Marie von Ebner Eschenbach examine recognizable and unfamiliar regions Although this study concentrates on provincial writings literary regionalism's fictionality and simultaneous referentiality raise broader questions for the programmatic aesthetics of Poetic Realism and for inquiries into identity formation
