are no longer an item and when Riley's tour in Afghanistan is up he intends to confess his feelings to Paige. But all that changes when an IED takes the life of a comrade and leaves Riley an amputee. Now he's heading home injured and troubled. She deserves so much more than the man that's left. All he can do now is put some healthy distance between them. But upon his return he discovers his family has arranged for him to stay with Paige. Paige is a nurturer at heart and happy to take care of her friend. But as the days pass Paige begins to see that Riley's smiles and laughter are just a mask for the pain he's hiding. He has nightmares and mood swings and his unwavering independence keeps him from accepting help from her. As the weeks wear on with the two in such close proximity Paige's feelings for Riley begin to shift into uncharted territory. Will she be able to deny her feelings for another Callahan brother. And will Riley let his heart heal so he can let Paige in.
