Talking Dialogue Karsten Lehmann, 2021-02-22 Throughout the last two decades the modern dialogue movement has gained worldwide significance The knowledge about its origins is however still very limited This book presents a wide range of insights from eleven case studies into the early history of several important international interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations that have shaped the modern development of interreligious dialogue from the late nineteenth century up to the present Based on new archival research they describe on the one hand how these actors put their ideals into practice and on the other how they faced many challenges as pioneers in the establishment of new interreligious interfaith organizational structures This book concludes with a comparison of those case studies bringing to light new and broader historical sociological understanding of the beginnings of international and multi-religious interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations over more than one century The World's Parliament of Religions 1893 The Religious Menschheitsbund 1921 The World Congress of Faiths 1933 1950 The Committee on the Church and the Jewish People of the World Council of Churches 1961 The Temple of Understanding 1968 The International Association for Religious Freedom 1969 The World Conference on Religion and Peace 1970 The Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions 1989 1991 The Oxford International Interfaith Centre 1993 The United Religions Initiative 2000 The Universal Peace Federation 2005 Based on these analyses the authors identify three distinct groups with sometimes conflicting interests that are shaping the movement individual religious virtuosi countercultural activists and representatives of religious institutions Published in cooperation
