Teachers College, 1926     "Sharks and Sprats" Beata Sokolowska, 2016-06-22 This book is based on reflexivity and offers a snapshot of migration from Poland to Ireland with a special focus on transnational migratory practices It evidences how young people articulate and negotiate their identities and pathways through peer hierarchies during their second culture acquisition This book has two purposes The first is to give a voice to a particular group of immigrants namely Polish immigrant teenage children in Ireland By exploring issues of children as social actors this book thereby moves children from passive research objects to real and active participants of the contemporary transnational migration The second is to highlight the importance of intercultural dialogue and the need for the practical endorsement of a truly inclusive intercultural education The structure of this book reflects the approach of studying acculturation within its dimensionality and domain specificity using diverse research techniques It not only widens our knowledge of the migratory perspectives of youth highlighting the educational needs of immigrant children but also addresses many gaps in our understanding of migratory teenagers modus operandi in adapting to cultural diversity By adopting this perspective the book contributes to a growing body of educational and sociological literature by making important inroads into our understanding of the acculturation process predominantly with regard to our perception of the acculturation strategies attitudes and outcomes in the context of the interculturalism of youth Teachers College Record ,1926 "Librarian," International Directory of Booksellers ,1927 Gaodhal ,1901 The Illustrated London News ,1917 Annual General Report of the Department Ireland.
