Fashions and clothes have changed many times over history. The clothes we wear now are very different from the clothes worn 100 years ago. What did clothes of the past look like? What did women wear? What did men wear? Did children ever have different clothes?

The Second People The Beginning:

The Beginning of a Spirit-filled Church Herman Hendrik van Alten, 2017-11-13 How does John Calvin view the church And how does the pivotal event of Pentecost influence his view on the church In his commentary on the Acts of the Apostles Calvin shows how Pentecost and the preaching of the Gospel gives rise to the church For Calvin the new and peculiar aspect of Pentecost is articulated by the phrases I will pour out and on all flesh Acts 2 17 The first phrase I will pour out leads to a discussion of the Holy Spirit who leads the church and the believers by the Word and his secret guidance All gifts flow from the Holy Spirit Therefore the study focuses on Calvin s view on the gifts of the Holy Spirit and on their use in church The author argues that the gifts of the Spirit are the basis of Calvin s interpretation of Christian church The second phrase on all flesh leads to a discussion of the inclusion of the Gentiles in the church The author treats different ecclesiology topics of importance He analyses the most important aspects of church that Calvin identifies in the book of Acts His reflections are aiming at a convincing theological appreciation of the sacraments in particular of the sacrament of baptism By addressing Calvin s thoughts as elements of his historical context and including contemporary impulses to these issues the author is able to present conclusive arguments for his main claim Calvin s commentary on Acts enriches and qualifies Calvin s own systematic ecclesiology as found in his main doctrinal work the Institutes

Origin and Transformation of the Ancient Israelite Festival Calendar Jan A. Wagenaar, 2005

The book focusses on the origin and transformation of the priestly festival calendar Since the epoch making work of Julius Wellhausen at the end of the 19th century the differences between the various ancient Israelite festival calendars have often been explained in terms of a gradual evolution which shows an increasing historicisation denaturalisation and ritualisation The festivals were in Wellhausen s view gradually detached from agricultural conditions and celebrated more and more at fixed points in the year This study tries to show that the changes in the priestly festival calendar reflect a conscious effort to adapt the ancient Israelite festival calendar to the semi annual layout of the Babylonian festival year The ramifications of the change only come to the fore after a careful study of the agricultural conditions of ancient Israel and Mesopotamia makes clear that passover and the festival of unleavened bread were originally celebrated in the second month of the year The first month of the year envisaged by the priestly festival calendar for the celebration of passover and the festival of unleavened bread in turn mirrors the date of one of the two semi annual Babylonian New Year festivals The two Babylonian New Year festivals were celebrated exactly six months apart at the vernal and autumnal equinoxes In order to adapt the ancient Israelite festival calendar to the Babylonian scheme with two New Year festivals a year the date of passover and the festival of unleavened bread had to be moved up by one month The consequences for the origin of passover the festival of unleavened bread the festival of weeks and the festival of huts are charted and the relations between the various ancient Israelite festival calendars are determined anew
