Hope and Time AKRAM ASAR KHAN,2023-10-06 I m creating this book because of the society I live in which allows for the adjustment of anything However our culture was beautiful because of the presence of religious beliefs However those in positions of authority and wealthy families take advantage of that at the same time By comparing one religion to another people are taught to hate one another and to lead normal men in the wrong directions in society When one religion hates another that creates a hateful religion I m penning that book since every faith is admirable and rich in culture And everyone treats one another with respect based on common decency rather than religion we had that thought while having different families yet the same hearts
