When Memory Dies

Sir Francis Hastings Doyle

When Memory Dies:

When Memory Dies A. Sivanandan, 2007-10-18 Haunting with an immense tenderness Unforgettable JOHN BERGER Profoundly moving Evening Standard A brilliant and moving first novel Times Literary Supplement I m recommending When Memory Dies to everyone Arthur C Clarke The Buddha taught that to live is to experience suffering Few family sagas especially first ones have captured this aspect of suffering and so many other truths in as lyric a fashion as When Memory Dies Through the viewpoints of three generations of a Sri Lankan family taking the reader from 1920 through the 1980s Sivanandan explores a culture destroyed first by colonization then through the ethnic divisions that are released when the country achieves independence The family which lives at a level of poverty that makes survival a constant struggle must also balance love for one another with a deep love of their homeland Without bending to romanticism or proselytization the author evokes a compelling and very human story of a lost country It is a vision as beautifully told as it is unrelenting in its devotion to truth In the process the work also supplies a rich historic background to the often underreported news accounts of the massacres and upheavals in Sri Lanka Winner of the Sagittarius Prize Shortlisted for the Commonwealth Writers Prize

When Memory Dies Ambalavaner Sivanandan, 1997      When Memory Fades: The Silent Epidemic of Alzheimer's Disease Subhadeep Aditya, 2025-12-01 About the Book When Memory Fades The Silent Epidemic of Alzheimer's Disease is a powerful blend of science storytelling and human experience revealing the devastating reality of a disease that is quietly reshaping the future of healthcare worldwide Through the fictional yet deeply realistic journey of Dr Arvind Sharma a neuroscientist suddenly forced to confront the very condition he once studied Subhadeep Aditya brings readers into the molecular battlefield where neurons die memories disappear and families watch their loved ones slowly slip away This book simplifies complex neuroscience without losing scientific accuracy offering readers a complete understanding of how Alzheimer's begins progresses and ultimately ends a life It explores failures and breakthroughs in drug development the global economic burden the emotional toll on caregivers and the urgent need for better prevention diagnosis and support systems More than a medical overview this is a call to action a reminder that behind every statistic is a person struggling to hold on to their identity while the world around them slowly becomes unrecognizable This book will make you think It will make you feel And most importantly it will make you care      Abiding by Sri Lanka Qadri Ismail, Ismail demonstrates that the problems in Sri Lanka raise fundamental concerns regarding the relationship between democracies and minorities He redefines the concept of minority not as numerical insignificance but as conceptual space where distinction without domination can be achieved

Memory, Nationalism, and Narrative in Contemporary South Asia J. Edward Mallot, 2012-09-25 This book investigates the ambivalent responses to the opposing compulsions of memory and forgetting in cultural production in South Asia Mallot reveals how writers such as Salman Rushdie Michael Ondaatje and Amitav Ghosh indict nationalism's sins by accessing and encoding the past      Assembling Ethnicities in Neoliberal Times Nimanthi

Perera-Rajasingham, 2019-10-15 Assembling Ethnicities in Neoliberal Times: Ethnographic Fictions and Sri Lanka's War argues that the bloody war fought between the Sri Lankan state and the separatist Tamil Tigers from 1983 to 2009 should be understood as structured and animated by the forces of global capitalism. Using Aihwa Ong's theorization of neoliberalism as a mobile technology and assemblage, this book explores how contemporary globalization has exacerbated forces of nationalism and racism. Nimanthi Perera-Rajasingham finds that ethnographic fictions have both internalized certain colonial Orientalist impulses and critically engaged with categories of objective gazing empiricism and temporal distancing. She demonstrates that such fictions take seriously the task of bearing witness and documenting the complex productions of ethnic identities and the devastations wrought by warfare. To this end, Assembling Ethnicities explores colonial era travel writing by Robert Knox (1681) and Leonard Woolf (1913), contemporary works by Michael Ondaatje, Romesh Gunasekera, Shobasakthi Dharmasiri, Bandaranayake and Thamotheerampillai, Shanaathanan, and cultural festivals and theater, including vernacular performances of Euripides's The Trojan Women and women workers theater. The book interprets contemporary fictions to unpack neoliberalism's entanglements with nationalism and racism, engaging current issues such as human rights, the pastoral, Tamil militancy, immigrant lives, feminism, and nationalism, and postwar developmentalism. No Country Sonali Perera, 2014-02-11 Can there be a novel of the international working class despite the conditions and constraints of economic globalization? What does it mean to invoke working class writing as an ethical intervention in an age of comparative advantage and outsourcing? No Country argues for a rethinking of the genre of working class literature. Sonali Perera expands our understanding of working class fiction by considering a range of international texts, identifying textual, political, and historical linkages often overlooked by Eurocentric and postcolonial scholarship. Her readings connect the literary radicalism of the 1930s to the feminist recovery projects of the 1970s and the anticolonial and postcolonial fiction of the 1960s to today's counter-globalist struggles, building a new portrait of the twentieth century's global economy and the experiences of the working class within it. Perera considers novels by the Indian anticolonial writer Mulk Raj Anand, the American proletarian writer Tillie Olsen, Sri Lankan Tamil Black British writer and political journalist Ambalavaner Sivanandan, Indian writer and bonded labor activist Mahasweta Devi, South African born Botswanan Bessie Head, and the fiction and poetry published under the collective signature Dabindu, a group of free trade zone garment factory workers and feminist activists in contemporary Sri Lanka. Articulating connections across the global North-South divide, Perera creates a new genealogy of working class writing as world literature and transforms the ideological underpinnings, casting literature as cultural practice. The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lankan Diaspora Peter Reeves, 2013 Well over a million people of Sri Lankan origin live outside South Asia. The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lanka Diaspora is the first comprehensive study of the lives, culture, beliefs, and attitudes of immigrants and refugees from this island. The volume is a joint publication between the Institute of South Asian Studies, NUS and Editions Didier Millet. It focuses on the relationship between culture and economy in the Sri Lanka diaspora in the context of globalisation increased transnational culture flows and new communication technologies In addition to the geographic mapping of the Sri Lanka diaspora in the various continents thematic chapters include topics on long distance nationalism citizenship Sinhala Tamil and Burgher disapora identities religion and the spread of Buddhism as well as the Sri Lankan cultural impact on other nations

The nine substantial essays in this volume deal with three wide ranging though interconnected issues the perceived status and standing of the Bible today aspects of the current state of biblical studies especially the uneasy tension between the increasingly esoteric agenda of mainstream scholarship and the hermeneutical concerns of those occupied with marginal readings the significance of postcolonial scholarship and pointers for its future at a time when empire has once again become a reality and a global subject of debate Among the essays here are an examination of Victorian reconstructions of the life of Jesus and of the Buddha and how these discourses were moulded and motivated by orientalism colonialism race and issues of British national identity the complexities of the use of the Bible in Sri Lanka war torn and beset with communal strife when the Bible itself is rife with vengeance and punishment the political and hermeneutical ramifications of the Asian tsunami and the use of natural disasters for decolonization and recolonization imperial intentions and a postcolonial sub text evident in the Johannine letters the fortunes of the English Bible as its promoters struggle to uphold its credibility in a market driven culture suicide bombing and asylum seeking All of these are issues of global significance and concern but they are hardly ever addressed by biblical scholars The essays contain both theoretical discussion and practical questions as to the usefulness of the Bible at a time when its contested role has been complicated by its tainted association with oppressive causes
