

CONNECTION

You may think about the internet, the one that we call Wi-Fi? But it's right but I want to tell you something, do you still remember the last time you ate at the dinner table with your family without a phone? When was the last time you hung out with your friends? Do you still face to face communicating with your parents? Right, all this thing seems like a rare thing to see and feel nowadays.

My routine when I was a child is that my grandma, wake me up and ask me to pray with her after that we will go to the living room and eat pandesal and milo with my mama, papa, nanay, cousins, aunties, uncle and we would also watch tv eating breakfast, then I will brush my teeth and wash my face then I will go to my neighbor friends maymay, ivory, kuya lester and many more kids we love to play langit and lupa, tag, tagu taguan and many more games and when its 12pm my ate jecel will start to shout and say ASHLEY KAKAIN NA and by that I will rush home then wash hands quickly and me and my family will gather at the living room we are eating while watching eat bulaga and when its 1pm its time for a nap and thats where my papa predo forcing me to sleep which sometimes I'm just waiting for him to sleep rather then it's me who supposed to sleep when its 3pm i will ask 5 pesos to my nanay just so i could buy my favorite junk food and candy after that i will rush to the sea because that were the spot of my friends and we would play till it starting to be night and when its 6pm my ate jecel will count to 10 me and jan will rush home because if my ate jecel finish counting and we are not in the front door we will be punish such as palo sa pwet or pingot and after that we will eat and me and my family will watch 24oras that a tv news and when its 7 something that's the start of drama and me and my nanay are wtaching will joking with each other and when its advertisements that's the guessing time of the family and thats my childhood back then, it was so fun and pure joy but that starting to fade when my cousins starting to become a teenager and my aunties starting to have a job everything starting to change the connecting and relationship i had with them starting to disconnect and now that I'm a teenager i often at home using my phone all day and me and my family just passing by with each other.

I know it not just me who are having this situation but I believe the more you get older the more the things you love as a kid you started hating it, you are maybe a bad temper and introvert now and seldom bonds personally with your loved ones, but showing appreciation affection and love to our love ones isn't strange to do, I hope that you be able to communicate and connect and build your relationship with your family and the solution to that is to give time because our time is precious that is why if you want to do something now do it now do not said maybe next time because what if this is the only time you got? That is why "do it now as if there is no tomorrow".

Bloom,2007-10-01 Transitions in Consciousness from an African American Perspective Carroy U. Ferguson,2004 In this book Carroy Ferguson presents a unique glimpse into the transitional stages in consciousness that many African Americans experience as they explore the essence of being a Black person in U S society and the world Using a model of six transitional stages in consciousness original essays and discourses on the symbolism of various historical events

Ferguson engages readers in an intriguing reflective process to give them a better understanding of how transitions in consciousness from an African American perspective are largely shaped and greatly influenced by the psychology of the times. The essays therefore represent the various dynamics at play as many African Americans engage the contents of their consciousness and learn to explore and transcend various societal challenges. To assist readers in engaging their personal self-reflective processes, Ferguson provides creative exercises and a comprehensive timeline of African American life.

University Studies University of Nebraska (Lincoln campus), 1914 Writers Without Borders Lynn Z.

Bloom, 2008-07-02 In Writers Without Borders: Writing and Teaching Writing in Troubled Times Lynn Z. Bloom presents groundbreaking research on the nature of essays and on the political, philosophical, ethical, and pragmatic considerations that influence how we read, write, and teach them in times troubled by terrorism, transgressive students, and uses and abuses of the Internet. Writers Without Borders reinforces Bloom's reputation for presenting innovative and sophisticated research with a writer's art and a teacher's heart. Each of the eleven essays addresses in its own way the essay itself as one way to live and learn with others.

Trauma and the Teaching of Writing Shane Borrowman, 2012-02-01 Deepening and broadening our understanding of what it means to teach in times of trauma, writing teachers analyze their own responses to national traumas ranging from the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor to the various appropriations of 9/11. Offering personal, historical, and cultural perspectives, they question both the purposes and pedagogies of teaching writing.

Course of Study in English ... New Jersey. Dept. of Public Instruction, 1926 Interdisciplinary Learning Activities Hannah Edelbroek, Myrte Mijnders, Ger Post, 2025-10-01 As the complex societal and technological challenges of the 21st century cannot be addressed by solutions from just one field of expertise, academics are increasingly expected to cross disciplinary boundaries. Interdisciplinary Learning Activities contains concrete suggestions in the form of examples of learning activities that university teachers can use to teach and foster interdisciplinary skills in graduate and undergraduate students. These skills for interdisciplinary understanding include critical thinking, collaboration, and reflection. Socratic-style questioning, Breaking News, The Walt Disney Strategy, and The Interdisciplinary Shuttle are just four examples of the 32 interdisciplinary learning activities for workshops, courses, and curricula that are shared by university teachers in this handbook. Incorporating these activities into education will contribute to creating a challenging, engaging, and successful learning environment.

Richard Wright

Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright (1908-1960) was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son. By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris. But his writings changed American culture forever, and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes. He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers. This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays, books, and articles from 1983 through 2003, arranged alphabetically by author. Within years, there are some 8,320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics Essay Connection, Seventh Edition and Smarthinking
