James H. Charlesworth,1998 The Odes of Solomon is recognized as the earliest Christian hymnbook Questions however abound Are the Odes essentially Jewish Jewish Christian gnostic or simply Christian There is wide agreement that the Odes are related in some way to the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Gospel of John Charlesworth argues that the Odes were composed in

John refers five times to the disciple whom Jesus loved From the second through the present century scholars have sought to identify this disciple traditionally concluding that he is the author of the Gospel and is indeed none other than John the son of Zebedee In recent phases of research however the identification of the Beloved Disciple with John the son of Zebedee has been exposed as weak and unpersuasive Yet according to James Charlesworth even this new research is problematic in that it tends to ascribe priority in discerning the meaning of the Gospel of John to documents other than the Gospel itself Moreover this research tends to impute historical accuracy to documents that were not primarily intended to present histories Based on extensive research then Professor Charlesworth has concluded that the primary texts in the Gospel of John and the reflections of modern scholars indicate that any identification of the Beloved Disciple whether with one of the disciples specified in the Gospel with one who is anonymous in this Gospel or with some symbolic theme must provide credible
