Sprache, Zeichen, Interpretation Günter Abel,1999 Theology and Philosophy in Eastern Orthodoxy Christoph Schneider,2021-01-01 Even in the twenty first century critical and creative engagement with modern and postmodern philosophy is a rarity in Orthodox circles The collection of essays presented here by Christoph Schneider makes a significant contribution to overcoming this deficit Eight scholars from six different countries working on the intersection between Orthodox thought and philosophy present their research in short and accessible form The topics covered range from political philosophy to phenomenology metaphysics philosophy of self logic ethics and philosophy of language The authors do not all promote one particular approach to the relationship between Orthodox theology and philosophy Nevertheless taken together their work demonstrates that Orthodox scholarship is not confined to historical research about the Byzantine era but can contribute to and enrich contemporary intellectual debates

Understanding World, Other, and Self beyond the Anthropological Paradigm Martin Pasgaard-Westerman,2018-09-10 Pasgaard Westerman rethinks the ontological and epistemological understanding of world other and self by opposing the general anthropological paradigm within contemporary philosophy Signs and interpretations are not functions of Man instead Man is conceived as certain signo interpretational relations to world other and self Opposing more traditional hermeneutical approaches the signo interpretational relations towards world other and self are understood as a skeptical disposition This skeptical disposition undercuts usual epistemological problems of skepticism and instead designates the permanent incompleteness of the process of interpretation and formulates an ethical imperative This ethical imperative aims at an active dissolution of fixed signs an openness towards other signs and the holding back of definite interpretations The book discusses how world appear as a sign world how the other appear within interpretational patterns and how our signs of self are experienced Discussing a wide range of epistemological and ontological questions and taking into account the perspectives of a broad range of philosophical traditions a signo interpretational account of reality world versions other persons and self is presented
