An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies, Second Edition Cyril Orji, 2021-01-07 An Introduction to Religious and Theological Studies walks students through topical issues to be encountered in the study of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as these religions encounter other religions in the context of the wider ecumenism The text is written from a Christian point of view and aims at helping students understand that to be Christian is to be ecumenical African Traditional Religions ATRs has been included in this survey to provide background for the religious traditions and cultures of peoples of Africa as Christianity moves inexorably southward The book has been written with undergraduate general education students in mind including meeting the needs of those in seminaries and theological institutes

From Truth and truth Francis Etheredge, 2016-04-26 The final book of this trilogy explores reason at work in the nature of faith of Fides et Ratio 43 indeed although faith is of its nature different from reason faith cannot exist except through grace assisted reason Volume One briefly meditated on the metaphysics of meaning which entailed considering the intimate interrelationship of truth and existence In this volume however it becomes clear that there is an intrinsic complementarity in the very nature of created being a complementarity between the literal and spiritual sense of what exists Thus for example a seed is both what actually exists and at the same time it can adequately express the beginning of the supernatural life sown in the sacrament of Baptism This leads to an almost literary argument for there being a single cause of all creation in that there is an incredible coherence of meaning throughout the whole More specifically the book discusses various questions of a bioethical nature and more generally offers a radical investigation of the nature of man male and female for in a word the origin nature and action of the human person require constant reciprocal reflection Thus there are various essays on different aspects of man male and female ranging from a consideration of God expressing the mystery of the Blessed Trinity through our participation in His own Being to the transition from a Jewish to a Christian understanding of marriage to a marital spirituality Finally faith in action ranges from being open to life to pilgrimages as a family and the slow but real discovery that there is a radical nature to our salvation in Christ that even if natural truth leads inexorably to the trembling outreaches of reason there is nevertheless a gratuitous Revelation which comes to meet and develop the life of us all

Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk, 2025 Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity's relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture

How to Read Aquinas Timothy McDermott, 2007 Aquinas was a 13th century university teacher who thought authority without reason could not make sense of truth and so taught questioning McDermott asks whether Aquinas's questions can make sense of the 21st century truths

St. Martín de Porres Alex García-Rivera,1995 The little stories and the traditions that grew up around St Martin de Porres are fascinating in themselves and every bit as charming as those told of St Francis of Assisi But as Garcia Rivera shows in this book these deceptively simple stories are equally the story of a submerged consciousness of resistance on the part of the marginalized peoples of Latin America For the first time Garcia Rivera unpacks these stories using the semiotic method and insights garnered from the works of Robert Schreier Eugene Genovese and Antonio Gramsci
