The Challenge Of Violence:

The Challenge of Violence Marshall Croddy, Charles Degelman, Bill Hayes, 1997-01-01 This document addresses violence as one of the key challenges facing the democratic and pluralistic republic under the framework of the Constitution and its Bill of Rights Primary focus is on criminal violence and the factors and behaviors that contribute to violent crime The text is organized into three chapters 1 The Problem of Violence 2 Law and Public Policy and 3 Taking Action Against Violence Chapter 1 examines the history costs and causes of crime Chapter 2 explores the constitutional context of the political debate over violence and the question of how government works to stem the tide of violence without compromising the individual rights of U S citizens Students are invited to engage in major policy discussions about gun control and youth curfews Chapter 3 presents a survey of what citizens around the country are doing to protect themselves from violence and to make their communities and schools safer places A teacher s guide designed to provide instructional support is included MM The Challenge of Violence Derek Richter, 1972-01-01 The Colonial Problem Lisa Monchalin, 2016-01-01 In The Colonial Problem Lisa Monchalin challenges the myth of the Indian problem and encourages readers to view the crimes and injustices affecting Indigenous peoples from a more culturally aware position Leighton's Magazine, 1926 The Challenge of Asia Ralph Borsodi, 1956 The Challenge of Violence Derek Richter, 1973-06 The Justice System and the Family Sheila Royo Maxwell, Sampson Lee Blair, 2022-10-14 An enlightening insight into the family dynamics surrounding contact with the justice system Police Courts and Incarceration is interesting reading for researchers and students of family sociology and criminology Peace Philosophy and Public Life Greg Moses, Gail Presbey, 2014-03-10 To a world assaulted by private interests this book argues that peace must be a public thing Distinguished philosophers of peace have always worked publicly for public results Opposing nuclear proliferation organizing communities of the disinherited challenging violence within status quo establishments such are the legacies of truly engaged philosophers of peace This volume remembers those legacies reviews the promise of critical thinking for crises today and expands the free range of thinking needed to create more mindful and peaceful relations With essays by committed peace philosophers this volume shows how public engagement has been a significant feature of peace philosophers such as Camus Sartre Dewey and Dorothy Day Today we also confront historical opportunities to transform practices for immigration police interrogation and mental health as we seek to sustain democracies of increasing multicultural diversity In such cases our authors consider points of view developed by renowned thinkers such as Weil Mouffe Conway and Martin Bar This volume also presents critical analysis of concepts for thinking about violence reconsiders Plato s philosophy of justice and examines the role of ethical theory for liberation struggles such as Occupy Law, Religion and Leadership in Africa F. Sibanda, E. Chitando, E.G. Konyana, B.P. Humbe, 2025-05-16 In Africa some heads of state sometimes prefer to take their oath on the Bible or the Quran rather than on an ancestral law or a fearsome fetish capable of causing misery in the event of a violation Thus in order to build credible institutions that can guarantee socio political and economic stability it is desirable to resort to certain ancestral practices in particular strict respect for customs At this level of our reflection it seems useless for Africans to reinvent the wheel rather we must look in the rearview mirror in order to exalt the pre colonial instruments capable of unravelling the invisible mystery of these societies In this same dynamic the ancestral law because of its historical and charismatic legitimacy imposes strict respect for the cosmic order Komo Guy Roland Kossonou Assistant Professor Legal Administrative and Management Sciences Training and Research Unit UFR SJAG Alassane Ouattara University Bouak C te d Ivoire There is no way the church leadership can ignore such issues which affect their people daily and only talk about the future kingdom to come Both the sacred and the secular kingdoms are important matters in the life of people in every community hence religious and political leaders should strive to resolve their conflicts because people look up to them for spiritual and political leadership When political leaders tell religious leaders to stick to preaching the gospel and not involve themselves in the political affairs of the country it silences the church s ability to speak for the poor Upendo Mwakasenga Ordained minister United Church of Zambia Doctoral student in systematic theology University of Kwa Zulu Natal Even today religio cultural beliefs inform the way the youths are viewed within Zimbabwe s political circles Such beliefs infantilize young people and disempower them from effective political participation In most cases this role is postponed into the future The existing political structures and regimes exploit youth to expend their energies as political and military foot soldiers for the political elite but they are not being mentored to be prepared for positions of leadership It therefore becomes crucial to question the maxim the future is young which seems to procrastinate youth political leadership in Zimbabwe Molly Manyonganise Senior Lecturer Department of Religious Studies and Philosophy Zimbabwe Open University Ultimately God provides and heals but the fisherman must still cast his net the farmer must still till the soil and the doctor must still administer medication It is no different in matters of governance military warfare or institution building Personal piety is inconsequential to the empirical workings of the world but it may weigh on the scales in the hereafter The Brotherhood s fatalism blinds them to the worldly instruments needed to govern a nation Study and experience in economic policy and statecraft cannot be replaced with saintly endeavours such as worship and charity Nabil Yasien Mohamed Lecturer in Islamic Studies Department of Religion and Theology University of the Western Cape into Zimbabwe's politics is multifaceted and topical particularly because for more than two decades now this Southern African state has been dogged by multiple problems including hyperinflation drought escalating poverty levels extremely high unemployment rates and political instabilities The volume's overall goal is to ignite intellectual discussions and practical action towards turning the political wheels that have been in place for decades The first segment examines the interface between gender and electoral politics in Zimbabwe The second part discusses the role of the media in Zimbabwe's electoral politics The third section reflects on the role of traditional leaders and religious discourses in Zimbabwe's electoral politics The book will be a key resource to colleges universities and organisations in Zimbabwe the Southern Africa region and even beyond
