The Phantom of the Temple Robert van Gulik, 2010-11-15 Based a historical figure Judge Dee must solve the puzzle of a missing person a robbery and a murder in this mystery set in Tang

Dynasty China Judge Dee presided over his imperial Chinese court with a unique brand of Confucian justice. A near-mythic figure in China, he distinguished himself as a tribunal magistrate, inquisitor, and public avenger. Long after his death, accounts of his exploits were celebrated in Chinese folklore and later immortalized by Robert van Gulik in his electrifying mysteries. In The Phantom of the Temple, three separate puzzles—the disappearance of a wealthy merchant's daughter, twenty missing bars of gold, and a decapitated corpse—are pieced together by the clever judge to solve three murders and one complex, gruesome plot. Judge Dee belongs in that select group of fictional detectives headed by the renowned Sherlock Holmes. I assure you it is a compliment, not given frivolously. Robert Kirsch, Los Angeles Times.

The CHINESE BELL MURDERS. Robert Hans van Gulik, 2024-05-15. The Chinese Bell Murders is a gong'an historical mystery novel written by Robert van Gulik and set in Imperial China, roughly speaking the Tang Dynasty. It is a fiction based on the real character of Judge Dee Ti Jen chieh or Di Renjie, a magistrate and statesman of the Tang court who lived roughly 630-700. This book was originally written by Robert van Gulik sometime between 1953 and 1956. Like its predecessor The Chinese Maze Murders, it was intended for a Japanese or Chinese audience but he later chose to publish it in English. As it happened, all three editions came out at roughly the same time. Robert van Gulik and His Chinese Sherlock Holmes, Sabrina Yuan Hao, 2023-09-20. In the post-war mid-century, Robert van Gulik produced a series of stories set in Imperial China and featuring a Chinese Judge Dee. This book examines the author's unprecedented effort in hybridising two heterogeneous crime-writing traditions: traditional Chinese gong'an court case fiction and its Anglo-American counterpart, bringing to light how his fiction draws elements from these two traditions for plots, narrative features, visual images, and gender representation. Relying on research on various sources and literary traditions, it provides illumination of the historical contexts, centring on the cultural interaction and connectedness that occurred during the multidirectional global flows of the Judge Dee texts in both Western and Chinese markets. This study contributes to current scholarship on crime fiction by questioning its predominantly Eurocentric focus and the divisive post-colonial approach often adopted in accessing works concerning foreign peoples and cultures.

The Transculturation of Judge Dee Stories Yan WEI, 2022-09-07. This book views the Dutch sinologist Robert van Gulik's Judge Dee mysteries as a hybrid East-West form of detective fiction and uses the concept of transculturation to discuss their hybrid nature with respect to their sources, production, and influence. The Judge Dee mysteries authored by Robert van Gulik (1910-1967) were the first detective stories to be set in ancient China. These hybrid narratives combine Chinese historical figures, traditional Chinese crime literature, and Chinese history and material culture with ratiocinative methods and psychoanalytic themes familiar from Western detective fiction. This new subject and detective image won a global readership, and the book discusses the innovations that van Gulik's Judge Dee mysteries brought to both Chinese gong'an literature and Western detective fiction. Furthermore, it introduces contemporary writers from different countries who specialize in writing detective fiction or gong'an novels set in ancient China. The book will meet the interest of fans of Judge Dee stories throughout the world and will also appeal to both students and researchers of comparative literature Chinese literature and crime novels studies The Maze Murders Robert van Gulik,1962
