The Genesis Of Values

Edward Andrew

The Genesis Of Values:

The Genesis of Values Hans Joas, 2000 Public and intellectual debates have long struggled with the concept of values and the difficulties of defining them With The Genesis of Values renowned theorist Hans Joas explores the nature of these difficulties in relation to some of the leading figures of twentieth century philosophy and social theory Friedrich Nietzsche William James Max Scheler John Dewey Georg Simmel Charles Taylor and Jürgen Habermas Joas traces how these thinkers came to terms with the idea of values and then extends beyond them with his own comprehensive theory Values Joas suggests arise in experiences in self formation and self transcendence Only by appreciating the creative nature of human action can we understand how our values arise

The Genealogy of Values Edward Andrew, 1995 Until the time of Karl Marx and John Stuart Mill philosophers generally held economics to be an integral element of moral philosophy These days the language of values moral aesthetic and cognitive dominates philosophic discourse even though contemporary philosophers rarely hold economics to be integral to moral philosophy Examining the thought of Friedrich Nietzsche and the art of Marcel Proust Edward Andrew provides the first sustained critical analysis of values discourse an analysis that deconstructs its content and its form

Values - Politics - Religion: The European Values Study Regina Polak, Patrick Rohs, 2023-07-18 This open access book analyses the international data of the European Values Study EVS 1990 2017 with a focus on the impact of religious on political values from empirical as well as theoretical perspectives i e sociology political and cultural studies philosophy ethics theology and the law It interprets results from interdisciplinary perspectives including the viewpoints of social ethics sociology and cultural studies law and practical theology In the political and public as well as media debates of the European Union the recourse to above all European and also Christian values has played a central and controversial role in the field of politics and religion for several decades This collection is a contribution to a qualified discourse on values in Europe by providing empirical hermeneutical and ethical criteria for a responsible use of the concept of values In addition to a comparison of political value systems in Western and Eastern Europe and the possible role of religion in this context the book also deals with topics such as f i solidarity economics and values value formation and law and values Additionally specific population groups such as the socio culturally marginalized strata are examined more closely Besides current scientific analyses and interpretations of interest to researchers from various disciplines this book also offers valuable impulses and suggestions for various multipliers in political civil society and religious organisations as well as a sound overview for graduate students
