The Ghetto Garden:

The Ghetto Garden Edythe Cohen, 2005-08 Keisha has a dream about changing the vacant lots where she lives into beautiful flower and vegetable gardens and donating the money from the proceeds to help recent tornado victims in Oklahoma The Ghetto Garden, 2001 Defiant Gardens Kenneth I. Helphand, 2006 A history of wartime gardens documents how they humanize landscapes and experience even under the direst conditions Jewish Topographies Julia Brauch, Anna Lipphardt, 2016-05-06 How have Jews experienced their environments and how have they engaged with specific places How do Jewish spaces emerge how are they contested performed and used With these questions in mind this anthology focuses on the production of Jewish space and lived Jewish spaces and sheds light on their diversity inter connectedness and multi dimensionality By exploring historical and contemporary case studies from around the world the essays collected here shift the temporal focus generally applied to Jewish civilization to a spatially oriented perspective The reader encounters sites such as the gardens cultivated in the Ghettos during World War II the Israeli development town of Netivot Thornhill an Orthodox suburb of Toronto or new virtual sites of Jewish Second Life on the Internet and learns about the Jewish landkentenish movement in Interwar Poland the Jewish connection to the sea and the culinary landscapes of Russian Jews in New York Employing an interdisciplinary approach with a strong foothold in cultural history and cultural anthropology this anthology introduces new methodological and conceptual approaches to the study of the spatial aspects of Jewish civilization Holocaust Landscapes Tim Cole, 2016-05-05 The theme of Tim Cole s Holocaust Landscapes concerns the geography of the Holocaust the Holocaust as a place making event for both perpetrators and victims Through concepts such as distance and proximity Professor Cole tells the story of the Holocaust through a number of landscapes where genocide was implemented experienced and evaded and which have subsequently been forgotten in the post war world Drawing on particular survivors narratives Holocaust Landscapes moves between a series of ordinary and extraordinary places and the people who inhabited them throughout the years of the Second World War Starting in Germany in the late 1930s the book shifts chronologically and geographically westwards but ends up in Germany in the final chaotic months of the war These landscapes range from the most iconic synagogue ghetto railroad camp attic to less well known sites forest sea and mountain river road displaced persons camp Holocaust Landscapes provides a new perspective surrounding the shifting geographies and histories of this continent wide event The Puppet Boy of Warsaw Eva Weaver, 2013-04-11 The story of Mika a Jewish boy who becomes a puppeteer in the Warsaw ghetto a stunning debut for fans of The Tattooist of Auschwitz The Boy with the Striped Pyjamas and Schindler s List I was twelve when the coat was made Nathan our tailor and dear friend cut it for Grandfather in the first week of March 1938 It was the last week of freedom for Warsaw and for us Even in the most difficult of lives there is hope And sometimes that hope comes in the form of a small boy armed with a troupe of puppets a prince a girl a fool a crocodile with half painted teeth When Mika s grandfather dies in the

Warsaw ghetto he inherits not only his great coat but its treasure trove of secrets In one remote pocket he finds a papier mache head a scrap of cloth the prince And what better way to cheer the cousin who has lost her father the little boy who his ill the neighbours living in one cramped room than a puppet show Soon the whole ghetto is talking about the puppet boy until the day when Mika is stopped by a German officer and is forced into a secret life This is a story about survival It is an epic journey spanning continents and generations from Warsaw to the gulags of Siberia and two lives that intertwine amid the chaos of war Because even in wartime there is hope

Krasny, 2013-07-22 Creation and access to green spaces promotes individual human health especially in therapeutic contexts among those suffering traumatic events But what of the role of access to green space and the act of creating and caring for such places in promoting social health and well being Greening in the Red Zone asserts that creation and access to green spaces confers resilience and recovery in systems disrupted by violent conflict or disaster This edited volume provides evidence for this assertion through cases and examples The contributors to this volume use a variety of research and policy frameworks to explore how creation and access to green spaces in extreme situations might contribute to resistance recovery and resilience of social ecological systems
